KAISER'S CLAIM OF DIVINE RIGHT STIRS GERMANY

Emperor's Speech at Banquet Causes Wave of Protest Throughout Empire.

BY GOD'S FREE GRACE, KAISER SAYS HE RULES

Flatly Declares He Is Not Responsible to Parliaments or Assemblies of the People---He Also Orders the Women of Germany to Steer Clear of the Suffragette Movement.

Berlin, August 26.—The speech delivered last night by Emperor William of Germany before the provincial banquet at Koenigsberg, in which he reiterated and emphasized his belief in the divine mandate by which he rules, referred to the Prussian crown as bestowed by God's grace and not by parliament's or people's assemblies and laid a lance against the present movement for women suffrage, is the political sensation of the hour.

Sharp Criticism for Kaiser.

The leading organs of the German press devote extended comment to it, generally criticising the emperor's utterances, and there are indications that the discourse will have a deep political effect on the country, nearly all the Berlin papers discussing the subject in connection with the political crisis of November, 1908, when the publication by The London Daily Telegraph of an interview with the emperor aroused a storm against the uncontrolled public speaking of the emperor.

The Vossische Zeitung, The Tageblatt, The Post and other papers point out the constitutional character of the kingdom of Prussia in the empire and inquire whether the chancellor, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, was privy to the emperor's purpose of delivering such a speech. They predict that it will lead to a renewed discussion of

ROBERT F. MADDOX,
Mayor of Atlanta, elected first vice president of the League of American Municipalities.

MADDOX HONORED BY CONVENTION

Named Vice President Municipalities League.

Next Convention Will Be Held in the Gate City---Atlanta Delegation to Visit Other Cities to Inspect Crematories There.

Atlanta figured largely in the affairs of the convention of the League of American Municipalities at the session held yesterday in St. Paul.

Mayor Robert Maddox, who on Thursday made an interesting address on "Civic Responsibilities," was elected first vice president of the league at the election held on Friday. His address made a deep impression upon the delegates to the convention, and gave the Atlanta delegation an influence which it would otherwise have lacked.

When the selection of a meeting place for the league came up for settlement, Atlanta and several other cities entered bids. The good work already put in by the Atlantans and the speech of Mayor Maddox had been effective, and the convention was awarded to the Gate City of the South, great enthusiasm greeting the announcement.

The success of Atlanta in the fight she made for the next meeting was all the more remarkable in view of the

HE PUTS BRAND OF DEMAGOGUE ON ROOSEVELT

William Barnes, One of New York's G. O. P. Bosses, Hotly Denounces the Colonel.

ROOSEVELT IS ACCUSED OF INJURYING BUSINESS

Barnes Says Business Is Tired of Facing Chaos, and Objects to Being Ruined by Political Demagogues--Declares Roosevelt Has Begun Wanton Agitation to Get Advertisement.

New York, August 26.—"I would suggest that Mr. Woodruff again read President Taft's letter to me of August 20."

Urged throughout the day to make a statement, this was all Lloyd C. Griscom, chairman of the New York republican county committee, would say in comment on State Chairman Woodruff's statements of last night, in which Mr. Woodruff said he was ignorant of any plan to present Theodore Roosevelt's name before the recent state committee meeting for temporary chairman of the state convention.

Mr. Woodruff did not amplify on his statement today, but William Barnes, Jr., of Albany, was more loquacious. He declared that the "people want a rest."

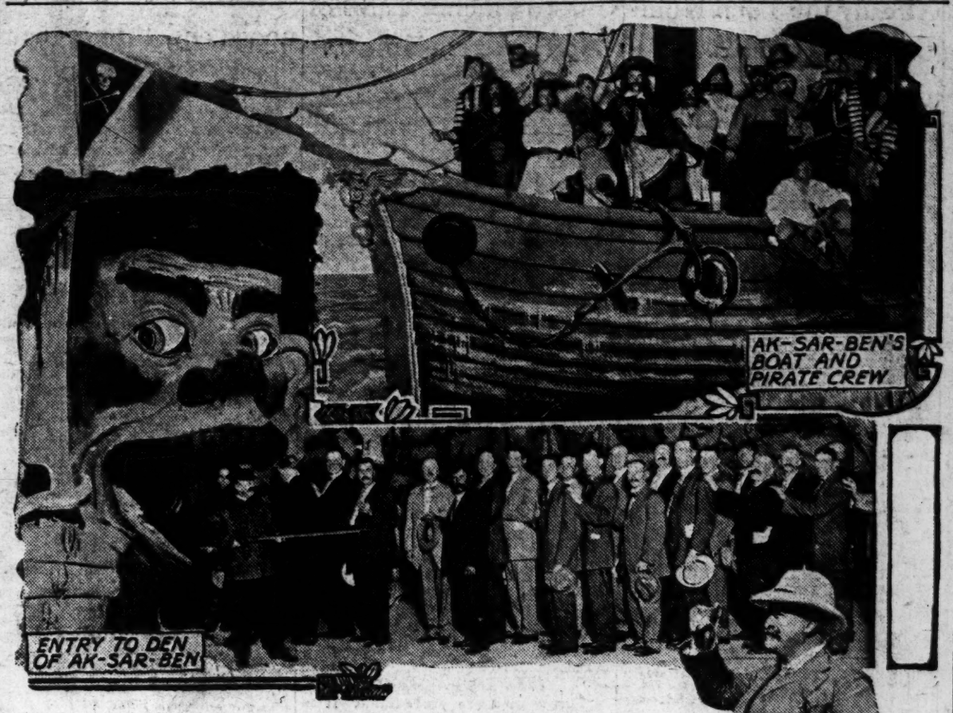

Barnes Hammers Roosevelt.

"What the people of the state want now is to be let alone," said Mr. Barnes. "Business interests are being put in a bad way by this wanton political agitation. People want to conserve their business interests, and do not want them destroyed by political demagogues. The business interests of the state are tired of facing chaos. They don't know where the next blow is coming from nor who is to deliver it.

"I regret the present controversy, as it means it will be almost impossible to conciliate the warring factions

OMAHA WILL INITIATE COL. ROOSEVELT INTO MYSTERIES OF "KNIGHTS OF AK-SAR-BEN"

When Colonel Roosevelt visits Omaha on September 2 he will be entertained in a manner not mentioned in his itinerary. Several hundred of the loyal citizens of Nebraska have turned the name of their state backward for the purpose of finding a title for a sort of secret society which is known as the "Ak-Sar-Ben." To this society most of the representative men of the Antelope State belong, and each Monday evening they gather in a special auditorium to discuss the civic needs and conditions of the populace. When President Taft was in Omaha the last time he was made a life member of the "Ak-Sar-Ben," and now it is proposed to make the only living ex-president a full-fledged member of the society by initiating him according to the ritual of the order. The Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben" have prepared special oaths for Colonel Roosevelt and arranged scenic and mechanical contrivances for his benefit that are said would frighten the most intrepid hunter, even though not in the wilds of Africa.

RUNAWAY HORSE CHASED IN AUTO AND THE LIFE OF MAN IS SAVED

Pittsburg, Pa., August 26.—A thrilling chase in an automobile was made near Kennywood Park tonight for a runaway horse and a man's life was saved. A horse, which had taken fright at a trolley car, bolted and threw Antonio Bazone from the seat. His right leg caught and the bone snapped. The horse raced madly ahead. On either side of the narrow road was a sheer drop of 100 feet, and at one time the horse was within a foot of the edge of the cliff. Thomas Nugent, of Braddock, and a party of friends who were in an automible some distance behind, gave chase, and at a point where the road widens slightly he succeeded, after a half-mile run, in getting alongside. With one hand on the wheel of his machine, he grasped the animal's bridle with the other. Bazone, who was being dragged with his broken leg still saught in the brake, was rushed to the hospital. It is expected he will recover.

AGENTS OF CORPORATIONS MUST BE DENIED OFFICE

Colonel Says Corporations Should Have Square Deal, But As They Have No Votes They Must Not Be Allowed to Own Public Officials. Great Crowds Greet Him.

Grand Island, Neb., August 26.—The west gave ex-President Roosevelt a warm greeting today, the people gathered in crowds at all places at which he stopped on his journey across Iowa and part of Nebraska, rang bells, tooted whistles, played bands and cheered. They stood on roofs, climbed telegraph poles and scrambled on top of cars on the sidings to see him, when the crowds on the ground grew so large that there was no other way. They began their welcome before Colonel Roosevelt was out of bed and kept it up until long after dark.

When the day was done Colonel Roosevelt said he was greatly pleased by the way the people of the west had welcomed him back again. He will arrive in Cheyenne, Wyo., in the morning and will make the second set speech of his western tour there in the afternoon at the cowboys' carnival.

In Raincoat and Slippers.

The colonel was up early; he had to be, for he was called out of bed by the people of Marshalltown, Iowa, who had gone before breakfast to see him and would not be denied. Clad in a raincoat and slippers, he made the first speech of the day at 6:45 a. m.

After brief remarks, frequently interrupted by cheering, he protested against the action of photographers who brought their cameras into action. "It is an outrage," he said, "to take my picture in this garb."

From then on it was almost a continuous performance, for at every point at which the train stopped a speech was demanded. The colonel kept on talking until his voice began to grow husky and he was urged to stop.

At Lunlap, Iowa, someone pulled the bell cord just as Colonel Roosevelt got on the back platform and with his arm held aloft, in his characteristic pose, was about to speak. The train pulled out, leaving the people standing in opened-mouth disappointment. At Logan, the next point, Colonel Roosevelt was allowed less than a minute for his speech, but he made such good use of it that thereafter attempts to suppress his speech were given up.

FIVE ARE KILLED IN TRAIN WRECK

Freight Engine Dashed Into Switch.

Engineer John C. Pope, of Moultrie, and Four Negroes Meet Instant Death Near Pecan City When Freight Collides With Log Train.

Albany, Ga., August 26.—(Special.)—Engineer John C. Pope, running on a Georgia Northern freight, and four negro laborers on a log train belonging to Corbett & Taylor, of Bridgeboro, were killed early tonight in a head-on collision at Pecan City, 7 miles below Albany. Two other negroes were seriously and a number slightly injured.

Struck a Switch.

Thirty negro laborers had been cutting timber near Pecan City during the day and an engine and flat car had come up from Bridgeboro to take them home for the night, running into a siding to await passage of the freight, which was running toward Albany.

When the freight, running about 25 miles an hour, struck the switch it dashed into the siding, the two engines coming together with a tremendous crash. Engineer Pope and his negro fireman jumped, the latter escaping serious injury, but Pope was tripped by some blocks of wood on which he landed and fell under his train. His head was completely severed from his body.

Four Negroes Killed.

Two of the negroes who met death were on the flat car with more than a score of others and fell under the wheels. The two others killed were sitting on the pilot of the log train and were caught between the two engines. All were frightfully mangled, some of the bodies being hardly recognizable as those of humans. The dead negroes are: George Kendrick, O. K. Ward, Jack Franklin and Duke Johnson.

Physicians were hurried from Albany in automobiles to the scene of the wreck, where the wounds of the injured were dressed.

Engineer Pope's home was at Moultrie. He leaves a wife and four children.

Whether the switch was left open by the crew of the log train when it entered the siding or the switch was defective has not been determined.

Blow to Osteopaths.

New York, August 26.—Justice Putnam, in the state supreme court in Brooklyn, today sustained the board of health in its refusal to issue burial permits on death certificates signed by osteopaths. The court held that osteopaths, while their practice might be of a grade just as high as that of regular practitioners, were not qualified by their studies to determine the causes of death.

AUTO AND TRAIN DASH TOGETHER

Two Persons Dead and Three Others Injured.

Only Quickness of Conductor Saved Crowded Street Car From Following Auto to Fate. Grade Crossing and a Raised Gate Responsible for Tragedy.

Paterson, N. J., August 26.—A grade crossing, a raised gate, an express train and an automobile in collision; two dead and three injured—such is the summary tonight of a fatal accident that narrowly missed being a catastrophe.

Only the promptness of a trolley conductor in throwing a derailing switch saved the moving car, heavily loaded with passengers, from following the more nimble automobile to the same fate.

Albert Froelich, of this city, driving the automobile, and his daughter Henrietta, 16 years old, were killed. Chester Foyle, 11 years of age, an acquaintance, has serious internal injuries and may die. Albert Froelich, Jr., was thrown to a distance and got up unhurt. Froelich and his daughter were both hurled against telegraph poles. The father was killed instantly and the daughter lingering a few moments.

The switchman had just lowered the gates for one express train and did not see, when he raised them, that another express was bearing down from the opposite direction. A towerman realized the danger and shouted a warning.

He was too late to save the automobile, but the conductor of the trolley car, who had just stepped off his car and gone ahead, heard him and instinctively let go the hand le of the derailing switch he was just throwing into alignment.

A spring threw the switch back into detrailment and the heavy trolley, grinding round a sharp curve, brought up against the curb safe.

WOMAN LEAVES $1,000,000 TO TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE

Rich Bequest Left the Negro School by Mrs. Dotger, of New Jersey.

New York, August 26.—By the death of Mrs. Flora L. Dotger, who died at the home in South Orange, N. J., this afternoon, the bulk of her estate, estimated to be worth $1,000,000, will go to Tuskegee Institute, of which Booker T. Washington is the head. The German Hospital, of Philadelphia, will receive $10,000.

DUEL TO DEATH ON CITY STREET

Prominent Men of Chattanooga Use Pistols.

Boyd Thompson and William Snyder Shoot Out an Old Quarrel, Both Being Mortally Wounded--By-Stander Struck by Stray Bullet.

Chattanooga, Tenn., August 26.—Boyd Thompson, a prominent young court reporter, was shot and fatally wounded here tonight, and William Snyder, the other participant in the duel, probably will die as a result of his injuries.

The shooting occurred on Market street, the main business thoroughfare of the city, while it was crowded. Charles Hensley, a lawyer of Dayton, who was across the street, received a slight wound by a stray bullet.

The trouble is the result of an old grudge. Ten days ago Thompson fired three shots at Snyder within a block of the scene of tonight's tragedy. All the shots went wild.

The two men have been anticipating further trouble since that time.

In tonight's affray ten shots were fired and a panic ensued among the crowd on the street. After Snyder had emptied his pistol at Thompson the latter staggered to a drug store a hundred yards away. Snyder followed, reloading his pistol as he ran. Thompson fell to the sidewalk, when Snyder leveled his gun at the prostrate form. Bystanders interfered and wrested the pistol from Snyder's hand.

All three of the wounded men were hurried to a hospital for treatment, but there is no hope for the recovery of either Snyder or Thompson. The former received three bullets and the latter four.

Saloonkeeper Kills Negro.

Columbus, Ga., August 26.—(Special.) Cleveland Bartlett, white, proprietor of a near beer saloon in the lower part of the city, tonight shot and instantly killed Shack Lane, a negro. Bartlett says the negro went into his place of business and acted in a disorderly manner, when he ordered him out. The negro took up a piece of billiard cue about 4 feet long and struck Bartlett, who grabbed his pistol and fired three shots into the left breast of his assailant. Bartlett was arrested.

No Bombardment of Skies.

Washington, August 26.—Estimating the cost of the experiment at about $100,000, the war department officers today declined requests to order a bombardment of the skies by all its guns on Puget Sound and at the mouth of the Columbia river in an effort to bring on rain in the burning forest district of the northwest. In addition to the objection of cost, the army officers regarded the proposition as certain to prove futile.

WELLS EXPELLED BY ASSOCIATION

National Theater Owners Take Expected Step.

Stand of Association Due to the Fact That Wells, Declaring Real "Open Door" Not Possible Now, Gave Time to "Syndicate" Bookings.

Advices received from New York last night state that Jake Wells, president of the Southern Association of Theater Owners, has been expelled from membership and from the board of directors of the National Theater Owners' Association.

This association was formed with the declared purpose of securing an "open door" in the theater field. Its organization was aimed at Klaw & Erlanger, who had refused to book the Shubert and Liebler attractions in the one and two-night stands, and its purpose was heartily commended by the Shuberts and other producers, who had been unable to get bookings.

K. & E. for "Open Door."

After the association got to running smoothly, however, and its success was assured, Klaw & Erlanger announced they were willing that all theaters should book any and all attractions they desired, and the firm, acting as the representative of a number of well-known producers, asked for time for these shows. The national association then refused to grant this time, it is claimed, acting under a rule of the association, which prevented any producer from booking the attractions of more than two producers.

It was charged that the Shubert influence was responsible for this action, in denying Klaw & Erlanger the right to book attractions in the one and two-night stands, and the effect was that the situation was reversed with the Shuberts and their allies in possession of the great majority of the theaters outside the big cities, and Klaw & Erlanger, with the majority of the houses in the big cities, and a minority in the cities outside.

Then Jake Wells, declaring that the "real open door" had not been obtained by the efforts of the national association, and that under the rules of that association he had a right to book any and all attractions offered him, give time to the Klaw & Erlanger shows, and those of other producers they represented. His action was indorsed at a recent meeting of the southern association, held in Chattanooga, at which 38 southern houses were represented.

Wells had expected to be expelled from membership in the national association, but claimed that he had lived up to its rules, while other members had violated them, and that he had a right to book any shows he pleased. Be-

CITY PRIMARY AT EARLY DATE

City Executive Committee to Meet Soon.

The Election Will Probably Be Held on Wednesday, October 5, Date of Regular State Election---Candidates for City Offices.

Now for city politics. No sooner has the voter given thanks because the state and county primaries are over than here comes along the city executive committee with the announcement that plans will be made at once for holding a city primary in either September or October.

The chairman of the committee, William M. Smith, says he will call a meeting either next Tuesday or Wednesday for the purpose of fixing a date for the primary, so the candidates can lineup and get busy.

It is believed that the primary will be held on Wednesday, October 5, the date of the regular state election. The city primary last year was on October 27, but nearly everybody seems to want a little earlier date this year, and October 5 will be three weeks earlier, and as the state election is held at that time, the voters will be saved the trouble of going to the polls on different days. Such an arrangement would also bring out a large vote in the state and county election.

Many Candidates Announce.

All during the summer candidates were announcing for the city offices, but they were lost sight of on account of the state and county primary; but now, since only the city primary is in sight, the candidates for the municipal offices will bob up very serenely in the political limelight.

This year the people will be called on to vote for city officials for whom they have never voted for before, and the ballot will be longer than ever known in the history of Atlanta.

Eight city officials, who have been elected by council, will be chosen by the people this time.

For Mayor and Aldermen.

The full list of candidates for the various city offices up to date is as follows:

For mayor, F. A. Quillian, James G. Woodward, E. E. Pomeroy and Steve R. Johnston.

For aldermen, third ward, W. W. Gaines and James E. Warren; fourth ward, James B. Everett and Dr. B. E. Pearce; seventh ward, F. J. Spratling; eighth ward, Dr. A. H. VanDyke.

For City Council.

For councilmen, first ward, Dr. A. L. Curtis and Guy Meyers; second ward, Harvey Hatcher; third ward, C. C. McDonald, W. H. Coppedge and Carl Guess; fourth ward, Dr. C. J. Vaughan; fifth ward, C. M. Moon and J. D. Sisson; sixth ward, C. W. Bernhardt and James R. Nutting; seventh ward, A. C. Andrews; eighth ward, Dr. J. W. Hurt and W. G. Humphrey; ninth ward, Aldine Chambers; tenth ward, D. J. Baker.

For Ministerial Offices.

For city clerk, Press Huddleston.

For superintendent of construction, R. M. Clayton and Henry L. Collier.

For comptroller, John H. Goldsmith.

For city attorney, James L. Mayson.

For building inspector, Ed. R. Hays.

For marshal, Robert E. Riley and James C. Fuller.

For recorder, Nash R. Broyles. Thomas H. Goodwin and George E. Johnson.

For tax collector, E. T. Payne and E. E. Williams.

For treasurer, Thomas J. Peeples.

For warden, Thomas Evans.

Killed Before Mother.

Lincolnton, N. C., August 26.—Standing around a neighborhood well where his mother and five other women had gathered to draw water, Theodore Gilbert, 5 years of age, was instantly killed and all the women more or less seriously hurt by a bolt of lightning from almost a clear sky this afternoon.

ADVERTISING TALKS

WRITTEN BY

WILLIAM C. FREEMAN.

CREATE, COOPERATE, CONCENTRATE.

CREATE BUSINESS by reaching out for it. THE LONGEST ARM in the world to do it with IS ADVERTISING.

The GOOD WILL OF CUSTOMERS of a store helps a lot, too. That is also advertising. It is word-of-mouth advertising, you know.

COOPERATE with your people in the store. Teach them to appreciate that ENTHUSIASM on their part and FAITH IN THE STORE will help them to make sales and to win the confidence of customers.

Nothing can be sold that will do a business any good if POLITE ATTENTION does not accompany the sale, and IF, also, THE ARTICLE SOLD DOES NOT MAKE GOOD.

It is easy to get anywhere with a business if there is HEARTY COOPERATION IN THE RANKS. No general ever went to victory with soldiers that sulked.

CONCENTRATE all the forces of the store into making it a pleasant place to visit. Everything should be kept in order and spotlessly clean and inviting. Determine to leave nothing undone that will contribute to the comfort of customers.

All of these things make a great impression. A pleasant smile on the face of a salesgirl or salesman will make a grouchy customer think that the sun still shines.

ADVERTISING really CREATES not only BUSINESS, but a REPUTATION.

COOPERATION BETWEEN PARTNERS and BUYERS and SALESPEOPLE always BRINGS SUCCESS.

CONCENTRATION—always thinking what to do to go ahead—will greatly aid in ACQUIRING GOOD WILL.

Just think over this little sermon for awhile.

Maybe it will help strengthen some weak spots—maybe it will blot out some sore spots.

People in stores are human, just like other people, you know.

DIAMONDS GATHERED BY A BAKER'S DRIVER

Kelly's Fondness For Gems Leads to His Arrest.

Newark, N. J., August 26.—A baker's driver at $15 a week, by vocation. James F. Kelly was, by instinct, a connoisseur in general. His fondness for delicacies and a consequential depletion of the stock of a fancy grocer, at whose shop he called every morning, led to his arrest today.

Search of his rooms uncovered miscellaneous merchandise, valued by the police at $1,200. He wore a diamond ring worth $1,200 and a diamond stud worth $300 more, while in his bureau were found a diamond brooch worth $1,000, a diamond horseshoe pin, a diamond set bracelet and several women's rings. In the cellar were three barrels of empty champagne bottles and three baskets of full quarts.

Kelly called to deliver his bread early and the watchman of the grocery store allowed him the run of the place. Detectives are working to account for the diamonds. They say that Kelly was formerly a prize fighter, known in the ring as "Cyclone" Kelly.

COUNT OF CORPSES IN THE FIRE ZONE

Already the Total Number Is Over 200.

And Every Report Adds to the List--It Is Probable the Exact Number Who Have Perished Will Never Be Known--Tragic Stories Told by Survivors.

Spokane, Wash., August 26.—The following are the revised figures on the forest fire dead:

United States forest employees, including Halms' 15 men, 136; loggers and settlers, St. Joe Valley, Idaho, 50; at Bullion Mine, Montana, firefighters, 8; at Wallace, Idaho, 4; at Newport, Wash., 2; at Mullan, Idaho, and Spokane, 3. Total, 204.

Telegraphic communication with the St. Joe Valley of Idaho has been restored, but it is not yet possible to verify the reports of large loss of life among fire-fighters, additional to the 65 reported by the government officers. The estimate of over 200 dead in the three states is adhered to by those most familiar with the situation.

Tragic Stories Told.

Tragic stories are being told by arrivals from the fire zone in Idaho. George Ryan, of Toronto, Canada, one of the thirty men imprisoned in War Eagle mine Saturday night, where six perished, said today:

"There were 75 of us under Ranger Pulaski. We first took refuge in the tunnel of the J. I. C. mine, but it was not safe, and after we had been there a short time thirty of us went down the creek a quarter of a mile to the War Eagle. I don't know what became of the rest of the men.

"We took horses into the tunnel. Pulaski told us to lie as close to the floor of the tunnel as we could, or close to the walls. We tried to block up the entrance of the tunnel with blankets, but the fire burned them off as fast as we put them up.

Died on His Knees.

"Two men who got scared, rolled around in the middle of the tunnel instead of keeping by the edge or on the floor, and they died across my knees.

"Nearly all of us during the six hours were lying in water that dropped from the roof and walls of the tunnel.

"When the fire finally passed and the tunnel cleared a little, nearly half of us were unconscious. The eyes of the others were gummed together from smoke and tears, so that we could hardly open them. Five were dead.

"We found a sixth man, burned to a crisp, a short distance up the creek from the tunnel, but we don't know what became of the other members of the party. The two horses were nearly suffocated, and their eyes were falling out of their heads. We had to shoot them."

Number of Dead Will Never Be Known.

George Biberbon, owner of a mine on Placer creek, southeast of Wallace, who reached here today, said the number of dead would never be known. He continued:

"Harvey Bertram, a deputy ranger, had much difficulty in holding all his half-crazed men. Believing they were being trapped, one or two of his party threatened to commit suicide. At times Bertram was able to control them only at the point of a revolver."

BLAME FOR FIRES ON STAND-PATTERS

Gifford Pinchot Talks of Northwestern Horror.

Says Fires Are Preventable, and That Heyburn, Mondell and Others, Who Have Opposed Forest Service, Have Been Fighting on Side of Fires

Washington, August 26.—Gifford Pinchot, of the National Conservation Association, and former head of the government forest service, in a statement issued today, holds that the loss of property and life in the recent and present forest fires was unnecessary.

"The disastrous results," he says, "are traceable to the unpreparedness to deal with the fire situation." He scores members of congress who have opposed appropriations for the proper equipment of forest rangers, and in that connection names Senator Heyburn, of Idaho, whose home town, Wallace, Idaho, suffered serious loss; Senator Carter, of Montana, and Representative Mondell, of Wyomin. The statement follows:

"I am proud of the splendid work the men of the forest service have been doing against the western forest fires. Many of them have given their lives to protect the homes of settlers and the forests on which the prosperity of the western people depend. To my mind, their conduct is beyond all praise.

Fires Are Preventable.

"Forest fires are preventable. It is a good thing for us to remember at this time that nearly or quite all of the loss, suffering and death these fires have caused, is wholly unnecessary. A fire in the forest is the same kind of a thing as a fire in the city. There is only one way to fight either. The fire department of every city is organized with the prime idea of getting to the fire when it is young. So with forest fires. The time to conquer them is before they grow strong. If a forest is equipped with roads, trails, telephone lines and reasonable number of men for patrol, there is no more likelihood that great fires will be able to get started than there is that great conflagrations like the Chicago fire will get started in a city with a modern fire department. Under rare circumstances they may, but the chances are against it.

Service Has Done Wonders.

"The forest service has done wonders with its handful of devoted men. It has put out every year many thousands of small fires, any one of which under favorable conditions might have developed into a conflagration which ten thousand men could not stop. This year, because of the great drouth, the worst in much of the west for more than twenty years, there were too many fires and too few rangers.

"The men in congress like Heyburn, Carter and Monday, who have made light of the efforts of the forest service to prepare itself to prevent just such a calamity as this, have in effect been fighting on the side of the fires against the general welfare. If even a small fraction of the loss from the present fires had been expended in additional patrol and preventive equipment, some or perhaps nearly all of the loss could have been avoided."

Seeks to Reach Chattanooga and Birmingham.

It Is Planned to Reach Chattanooga From Gadsden, Ala., Over Chattanooga Southern and Birmingham From Junction City Over A. B. & A.

Chattanooga, Tenn., August 26.—There is a rumor current in Gadsden, Ala., to the effect that the Chattanooga Southern railroad, which runs from this city to Gadsden, is contemplating making a connection at that point with the Georgia, Florida and Alabama railroad, a big system in the southeastern part of the state.

The rumor has it that the G., F. & A. is already at work building a line from the main line south of Columbus through Richmond, Ga., to Junction City, Ala., on the A., B. & A., over which road it intends to operate trains into Birmingham.

From Birmingham, the G., F. & A. intends to build a line to Gadsden, which, connecting there with the Chattanooga Southern, would give a through trunk line from Tallahassee, Fla., to Chattanooga, where further connections would be had with the north.

STATEMENT MADE BY E. H. WALKER

E. H. Walker, candidate for governor in the recent primary, has issued the following statement:

In The Georgian today, Governor Smith is quoted as saying: "I lost at least ten counties because many of his supporters failed to strike the name of E. H. Walker from the ballot." But for the confusion occasioned by the third name on the ticket, Mr. Smith says, "he believes he would have carried every one of his old counties and half of Governor Brown's."

"And half of Governor Brown's." Big talk, ain't it? Having as much right to an opinion about the matter as Governor Smith has, I want to say I don't believe anything of the kind.

All this contemptuous mention of my name because of my being the candidate of less prominence after the election is over is outrageously unfair and discourteous to me. And I won't stand for it. Especially as I have treated both Governors Smith and Brown with due courtesy and respect throughout my campaign, as the people of Georgia well know.

Governor Smith was one of the three candidates in the gubernatorial race—just one, and no more. His utterances as quoted above seem to imply that, because I was the less prominent candidate, I was not entitled to be on the ticket equally with him.

I entered this race as the anti-faction candidate, on a platform that was widely indorsed. Many of his and Governor Brown's supporters informed me personally and by letter that if the lines (factional) had not been drawn so tight, they would have supported me. Because the factional lines between Smith and Brown were drawn so tight, I felt that the voters of our state would not, under the circumstances, act on anything in voting except the matter of factional choice; and for that reason I decided not to make a personal campaign, but, rather, to test my chances of being elected on what appeared very probable up to the day of election, i. e., holding a small number of delegates myself as a balance of power between a possible and probable close number of delegates held by Governors Smith and Brown in the nominating convention.

I also felt that I had put forth a platform upon which, if I were elected, I could render my state a service of lasting benefit to every citizen in it by giving it a constructive, business-like administration. I had, as a citizen of my native state, just as much right on the ticket for governor as Mr. Smith had, whether he thinks so or not.

I don't care a rap what Smith thinks about it. I'll leave it to the people of my state to answer.

I want to say also that you are getting on dangerous ground, Mr. Smith, when you jump on an opponent because he is smaller than yourself in prominence or financial strength. The people of Georgia love fair play, and they have a way of resenting anything like personal ownership or who has a right to be on the gubernatorial ticket, such as you imply in your "silent contempt" way of referring to me, and as is implied in a proposed law to say who shall or shall not be a candidate for governor of our state. I thought you learned this truth in your experience of two years ago. This is our state. It does not belong to you. And I will assure you that you will find it a pretty live wire when you or anyone else attempts to get a law passed in Georgia that will take away the right of the poorest citizen in our state to run for governor if he wants to. The people of my native state have a way of rising up suddenly and creating a state-wide prominence for a candidate when he is treated with discourtesy.

I am tired of all this howl about my name being on the ticket and making laws to stop citizens from running for governor who haven't "a following," etc. And I feel that I have not been fairly treated in it at all. Very truly yours,

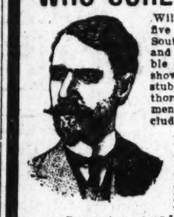

EDWARD H. WALKER.

Sociability between real farmers' wives and the wives of "gentlemen farmers" is growing out of a craze for gardening. Women don't hesitate when, in the course of a drive, they see something they covet in a farm house garden, to stop the motor and ask pleadingly, "Would you exchange that, or seeds of it, when they ripen, for something in my garden?" Sometimes a friendship flowers right there, for the farmer's wife is generally ready enough to promise, and then she clips a bouquet for the visitor, telling her, meanwhile, how "M son, who is working in the city now, planted this" and "that's m daughter Mary's favorite flower."

Carolina Campaign Begins to Warm Up.

Lyon Was Assailed by Friends of J. T. Crews, One of the Editors of the Laurens Paper.

Laurens, S. C., August 26.—Attorney General J. Fraser Lyon was assailed here today by the friends of J. T. Crews, one of the editors of a Laurens paper, against whom Mr. Lyon had made references in the South Carolina state campaign.

Crews leaped to the stand and demanded that Mr. Lyon read other letters when the trouble arose. Four men then leaped upon the platform. Lyon struck at one, Henry Wright, and knocked him in the chest several times. It was five minutes before the crowd could be quieted and a policeman sat at the feet of Mr. Lyon with a half-drawn revolver.

The South Carolina candidates for state offices spoke at Laurens today.

DYNAMITE IS USED ON A TROLLEY CAR

Disorder Continues as Result of the Strike at Columbus.

Columbus, Ohio, August 26.—A freight car on the Westerville interurban line, maintained by the Columbus Railway and Light Company, whose employees are now on strike, was dynamited at 6 o'clock tonight just outside the city limits. A passenger car following the freight car at a distance of 50 feet was shaken.

At a meeting of the Columbus Clearing House Association today a resolution was adopted declaring the strike was practically at an end and that the public should use the cars as in normal times.

Wilkes Planter Injured.

Washington, Ga., August 26.—(Special.)—Theoderick Brooks, aged 25 years, and the oldest son of John E. Brooks, a well-to-do planter of Wilkes county, was the victim of a serious sawmill accident Thursday afternoon that may cost him his life. The canthook used at the saw mill to turn the logs on the carriage was left by negro workmen out of place, and when the machinery was set in motion, it came in contact with the rapidly-moving saw and was broken into several pieces. Two of them were hurled back with terrific force, striking Brooks just over teh heart and in the face. Brooks' condition is very grave. He was taken on the early train this morning to Augusta for medical treatment.

WHITE WAY WORK TO START SOON

Only a Few Signatures Remain to Be Secured.

Out of $15,000 Necessary to Raise Before Work Can Begin, the Owners and Tenants Have Already Arranged for Approximately $13,500.

Atlanta's Great White Way is undoubtedly, to all practical purposes, a certainty, notwithstanding the fact that a few property owners and tenants have been holding up the matter by not signing the subscription agreement for Peachtree, Whitehall and Mitchell streets.

The proposition of George A. Miller, when he started in to canvass the situation here four months ago, was that it would cost $1.92 per front foot, this cost to be divided equally between the property owner and the tenant; that is, 96 cents per front foot each, which amount would pay for the posts and their installation and equipment complete, ready for the electric current. Payment of this amount on the part of property owners and tenants was based on the city's agreeing to furnish the current for the lighting of the system, after the cost of the installation of the system had been borne by the property owners and tenants. The city passed the ordinance appropriating the funds to light the system, and it but remains to raise a comparatively small amount to insure the installation of the system.

Of $15,000, the amount necessary to defray the cost of the installation of the system complete, approximately $13,500 has been subscribed.

The work of beginning installation has been delayed for two weeks past, because of the failure of a few property owners and tenants to sign the agreement. Some of these have been absent from the city; others represent estates, and possibly a few have not fully understood the whole merits of the enterprise.

Mr. Miller stated Friday that his proposition originally was to raise 100 per cent of the money necessary on the basis stated above, and he has no doubt but this amount can be raised, and will be within a very short time, as he is giving his entire time to this work and obtaining signatures every day.

It is understood that all the railroads who have offices on the streets concerned have practically agreed to come in, their delay having been occasioned by having to correspond with their distant headquarters. There are probably less than half a dozen property owners who are available in the city, and not many more tenants, who have not signed and who have offered any objection to so doing. In other cases lease conditions have made it difficult to obtain the signatures in individual cases.

Notwithstanding these slight drawbacks, however, it is a positive fact that enough signatures will be obtained within the next few days to warrant the assertion that Atlanta's Great White Way will be an assured success, and in operation in the very near future.

The work cannot be begun until practically all of the signatures have been obtained. It is believed that these signatures will be given in the next few days.

Receipt That Cures Weak Men---Free

Send Name and Address Today--- You Can Have It Free and Be Strong and Vigorous.

I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debility, lack of vigor, weakened manhood, failing memory and lame back, brought on by excesses, unnatural drains or the follies of youth, that has cured so many worn and nervous men right in their own homes—without any additional help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his manly power and virility, quickly and quietly, should have a copy. So I have determined to send a copy of the prescription free of charge, in a plain, ordinary sealed envelope to any man who will write me for it.

This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of men and I am convinced it is the surest-acting combination for the cure of deficient manhood and vigor-failure ever put together.

I think I owe it to my fellow man to send them a copy in confidence so that any man anywhere who is weak and discouraged with repeated failures may stop drugging himself with harmful patent medicines, secure what I believe is the quickest-acting restorative, upbuilding, SPOT-TOUCHING remedy ever devised, and so cure himself at home quietly and quickly. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, 3988 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send you a copy of this splendid receipt in a plain ordinary sealed envelope free of charge.

ONE DAY'S TELEGRAPH TOLLS COST BROWN AND SMITH $800

It costs something to be governor of Georgia, if any should chance to question you. It costs not a little to get the privilege of being governor and then afterwards it costs quite a tidy sum just to thank the people who helped to get you the privilege of spending more money than you are making while you are holding down the governor's job.

The telegraph tolls alone would knock a pretty good-sized hole in the average man's bank account. In fact, it wouldn't be a bad bet that $2,000 wouldn't more than cover the price of the messages sent out of the candidate's headquarters during the last campaign.

On Tuesday, the day of the election, Governor Brown sent out over the Western Union alone telegrams on which the tolls were exactly $400. His opponent, Mr. Smith, went him just one better, put in a couple of extra words (Mr. Smith's a lawyer), and his bill for that day alone amounted to just $400.05.

"Huh, I've been thinking about running for governor myself," said an aspiring young Atlanta politician when he heard the above figures, "but it's 'never again' for mine. I couldn't afford the job if they'd hand it to me, if it cost that much to thank 'em."

BUSINESS HOUSES WILL AID IN ADVERTISING HORSE SHOW

In order to advertise the October Horse Show, the management has arranged with a local printing establishment to have a handsome drawing imprinted on the backs of business envelopes free of charge to the business houses that will help out the Horse Show in this manner.

The drawing is one of the most attractive ever made for a Horse Show. It depicts a spirited horse being put through his paces by a dapper little groom. The advertising matter accompanying the picture is brief.

Any business house willing to send out their envelopes with this patriotic advertising on them should notify Secretary R. C. Congdon at once, either by phone or mail, at Bell phone 4945. The secretary will send for the envelopes, have the advertisement put on them and return them to the owner in short time.

WALKER HELD FOR GRAND JURY

Charged With Burning Wife to Death.

Preliminary Hearing Given the Bibb County Farmer at Justice Court---He Declares That He Is Innocent Man.

Macon, Ga., August 26.—(Special.)—William B. Walker, the farmer who was accused of burning his wife to death at the home 7 miles west of the city on last Sunday, was today held for the grand jury by Justice R. F. McCowan, under the charge of murder.

Only one witness, his mother, appeared for him. Twelve or more were brought in by Solicitor General Grace for the prosecution, among them being Claricy Drawhorn, the negro woman who said she heard Mrs. Walker say her husband burned her and did it on purpose. Walker made a statement in which he declared he did not burn his wife.

A young man, appearing for the state, said Walker had tried to hire him to testify that Walker was at the oil currying the horse when Mrs. Walker ignited her own clothing at the stove.

FRANCE IS STIRRED BY AMERICAN RULES

Exporters Say Business Will Be Ruined by New Regulations.

Paris, August 26.—The remonstrances of the textile exporters to Minister of Commerce Dupuy against the alleged hardships and expense which they say will be caused by the application of the rule of American consuls requiring exporters to forward to them samples of textiles, except laces and embroidery, which are to be shipped to the United States, have reached the proportion of a universal protest.

Exporters say that to carry out the new rule would mean the ruin of their business to America.

The members of the American Chamber of Commerce who are taking sides with their French brethren, say the new regulation should be annulled.

No doubt Uncle Joe Cannon feels like a man who has just three yards' start of a sweeping forest fire.

Taft has been trying to coax Harmony home, but the Roosevelt method is to beat it back into the ranks.

Wall street is used to the Roosevelt raps, but they still have the power to bring a bellow from the bulls.

Of course, George Bailey is boasting that Texas has the hottest weather this side of what's to come hereafter.

Former Vice President Fairbanks announces that he will take the stump—which is about all his party will ever give him.

Wouldn't think Georgia had just past through a red-hot political campaign by the cool manner in which she keeps a-going.

Mr. Bryan is giving the party oceans of advice as to 1912 to the accompaniment of "And You'll Remember Me."

Even the defeated ones, seated on a cool, green hill, can think with pride of the dust they raised in the melting middle of the road.

Speaker Cannon scarcely arrives at a place before the people hand him his hat and tell him when the next train leaves.

The Colonel's tour will cover fourteen states; but he is not superstitious, for he says there was great good luck in the original thirteen.

The Jim Sherman idea is to make them understand that he amounts to more than a row of political pins; that he is, in fact, a whole keg of railroad spikes.

The Florida Times-Union speaks of "sad candidates in Georgia." That isn't the Georgia way. However it turns out, they invariably join hands and have a halleluia and high-water time of it.

ROOSEVELT AND THE "OLD GUARD."

"The old guard dies, but never surrenders," is a saying that is apt to be borne out by the performance of the "old guard" in republican politics in New York state, where Colonel Roosevelt is striving his most strenuous to unhorse the faction headed by Barnes, Woodruff, et al.

It was the "old guard," it will be remembered, that, aided by Vice President Sherman, conspired to repudiate the Colonel when he sought to become temporary chairman and key-note orator of the forthcoming state convention.

Subsequent to this performance, President Taft has come out strongly with a rebuke to this element in the state organization; but it is seriously open to doubt if the bitter animosities which have been engendered will be resolved by even his powerful influence.

The Roosevelt, or reform, wing of the New York organization has another name for this contingent—the "Black Horse Cavalry." Upon their shoulders is endeavored to be placed the blame for most of the corrupt practices against which Governor Hughes is most actively contending. It is also the expressed belief of Colonel Roosevelt that unless the "Black Horse Cavalry" is scourged from its seat of influence in New York state, the chances for success at the polls this autumn are nil.

Meanwhile, the former president is resuming his western tour, breathing threatenings and slaughter against the "gang" that conspired for his defeat; while Barnes and Woodruff are indulging in a series of conferences to determine means whereby they may defeat the program jointly indorsed by Roosevelt and Hughes, which includes direct nominations and other constructive features.

All of which illustrates rather vividly the dissension which rules the republican party the country over, regardless of location.

BANNING BATTLES IN THE AIR?

Will warfare in the air be prohibited by international agreement?

The conjecture is given plausibility by General Homer Lea, in a recent magazine review of the aeroplane as applied to war.

General Lea is the author of "The Valor of Ignorance," a somewhat startling, if spectacular, exposition of the naval weakness of America, as contrasted with other nations, notably Japan.

Broadly speaking, General Lea disparages the present widespread belief that the aeroplane is to revolutionize warfare, by declaring that its very deadliness will cause it to be banned by international agreement.

He shows that, step by step, the nations have reached an understanding touching those various agents that might have exerted the same relative effect upon war as that now attributed to the aeroplane.

International law has outlawed the use of poisons to contaminate the drinking water or food supply of a foe, since otherwise there would be available an element threatening at any time to make warfare an impossibility.

It has also banned the use of certain types of bullets, such as the dum-dum, or flat-nose, bullet.

Restrictions have likewise been placed upon numerous other devices and contrivances which would either create conditions of unnecessary or barbarous cruelty, or make war annihilation, pure and simple.

An even stronger argument he advances is that the authorized use of the aeroplane would deprive the great and wealthy nations of the preeminence they now enjoy, and place government everywhere at the possible deadly whim of inferior powers with sufficient ingenuity to deal crushing blows from the clouds.

General Lea's arguments are impressive, but we have as yet had too short an experience with the aeroplane to gauge their eventual soundness. Meanwhile, it is superfluous to say that his remarks will not discourage the steady progress of experimenters and inventors.

THE "TIN SOLDIER" OBSOLETE.

The Cleveland (Ohio) Leader pays a merited compliment to the marksmanship of the national guard at the recent Camp Perry shoots, where it showed up splendidly, as in contrast with the marksmen of the regular army, and declares that fact argues reassuringly for the country's "second line of defense."

Not only in respect of marksmanship, the importance of which the trained soldier will not be inclined to dispute, but as well in each other phase of discipline, strategy and tactics, the country's national guard has exhibited phenomenal improvement during the past ten years.

Formerly the taunt, "tin soldier," widely applied, might have been deserved.

Today the term loses all meaning, when applied to the young men of cities and of the country towns who voluntarily enlist in the militia of their respective states.

Increasingly the war department has hedged enlistments and maintenance of the national guard with more restrictions. It has been enabled to enforce its mandates, to a great extent at least, by refusing to cooperate in the matter of the annual encampment or the use of arms, munitions or training officers, unless the respective states complied with the regulations of the war department.

The result is seen in an immeasurably augmented efficiency on part of the state troops in every part of the community, with the individual soldier taking his enlistment oath seriously and his employer inclined to cooperate with him to the end of improving the service.

It is to be hoped there will be no occasion in the immediate future justifying the test of actual warfare, so far as either the regular or volunteer army is concerned. But should that contingency be not spared us, the confidence of the country that the citizen soldier will be found equal to the call is well founded.

STRAUSS CRUSADE FOR PURE MILK.

Nathan Strauss, the New York millionaire philanthropist, has decided to abandon the distribution of pasteurized milk among the poor in New York city.

The cable dispatch from Berlin in which he announces this intention was received with mixed emotions by the people of the metropolis.

Owing to the bitter opposition of a large element in the medical profession, Mr. Strauss decided to give up the crusade he had undertaken for the great purpose of saving the poor children of that great city. In addition to seventeen milk depots in New York, Mr. Strauss has maintained one in Berlin.

His scheme was attacked as being of doubtful value, and some of his critics were most aggressive in their assaults.

While everybody wanted pure milk, and the doctors united in condemning the fluid that was below the standard, they disagreed as to the value of pasteurized milk. The process of pasteurization, or heating milk for a certain period at a certain degree, while it destroyed some of the harmful bacteria, led to the formation of others which then defied detection.

So the great charity of Mr. Strauss has been condemned as unpractical and as failing in its purpose.

But the heart of the man who distributed free milk to poor children was right.

FOUNTAIN FOR THE GEORGIA TECH.

No detail of a college campus is richer in meaning that the objects that represent the generosity and affectionate remembrance of the graduate body.

In deciding to erect on the campus of the Georgia School of Technology an artistic drinking fountain for the comfort and convenience of the institution, the class of 1903 is paying to the school a worthy tribute.

The new marble fountain will not only be a work of art, but a memorial of practical utility.

Hard Trials.

Land o' Tribulation since de time you had yo' birth:

Sayings by the Wayside.

The world moves on to glory, but sometimes the prospect of the glory is too warm for us.

All right to be on good terms with the stars, but we get along better by being well acquainted with the world in which we're living.

If Time and Tide took a notion to wait for one man, the rest of the world would never get to where they're going.

The Brighter Day is always just ahead. But for that we'd never travel a minute in the dark.

Once there was a poor man who cried mightily to the angels, but when wealth came his way he grew proud and reserved, and when someone said: "Are you not the man who once prayed so loud that you disturbed the whole neighborhood?" And he replied: "Not me! I'm not of the crying kind. It sure must have been the other fellow."

What the Leaves Say.

"Time is a-flyin' in the old-time way"—
That's just the lesson that the brown leaves say.

Short time for sowing—short time to reap;
Short time for living, and long time to sleep.

Heed well the lesson ere the short time goes;
Dark is the dreaming of the fading rose.

Short time it's given one joy to keep;
Long time for shadows, and long time for sleep!

Got Him Anyhow.

"In order to rise above the bill collectors," says the Billville Banner, "a certain man in this town got an airship. He riz all right, but after perambulating around in the air for a while he tumbled into a river, where his creditors were in swimming, and they straightway levied on him and what was left of the airship."

Our Literary Farmers.

Many of our greatest literary men started life as farmer boys; and just notice how they get back to the farm after they have succeeded in literature. It was a wise philosopher of old who said: "The best thing one can do is to cultivate one's own garden."

"We all get back to the old home place
Where our hearts first thrilled with joy,
For to reap or to sow,
Or to plow or to hoe,
Or to be a farmer's boy!"

Nature's Own Books.

And now we have a number of books on "Cotton," but the very best books we have are the Georgia fields, wide open with it. In the language of the Sweet Singer of the Whitsett Courier:

"Round up yer troubles—
Put 'em all to bed;
Cotton to clothe us,
Corn for daily bread!"

Cheer up! The longest lane will have a turning if it doesn't tilt the wagon over at the turn, and spill the golden apples. But here is consolation for you:—

"Here, we're short o' money,—
Get weary in the race;
But we'll live on milk and honey
When we reach the other place!"

PEACHTREE WIDENING HELD UP TEMPORARILY

Movement Will Be Taken Up Again When Interested Parties, Out of City, Return.

The project to widen Peachtree street has not been abandoned, as some seem to think. The matter has been held up only temporarily on account of the absence from the city of one or two of the interested property owners, but will be actively taken up within the next two weeks. There is every reason to believe, it is stated, that the improvement will be made in the near future.

In speaking of the matter Friday, Ed W. Alfriend, one of the leaders in the movement, stated that he has been unable to give the matter his personal attention during the past several weeks on account of the press of matters of a personal nature. He stated also that two interested property owners who are at present out of the city, will have to be seen before the work can go on. Both these parties are expected to return within the next two weeks, however, and Mr. Alfriend states that immediately upon their return the matter will be taken up. He expressed the belief that the proposed improvement will be carried through within a short time.

CANNON AND TEDDY TO ASSIST SLEMP

In His Contest Against Democrat for Congress From the Ninth Virginia District.

Knoxville, Tenn., August 26.—It is announced that Speaker Cannon will visit the ninth Virginia district to assist Congressman T. B. Slemp in his vigorous contest against Henry Stuart, the democratic nominee. Slemp was an ardent supporter of Cannon in the rules fight in the house.

Ex-President Roosevelt will also visit the ninth district in behalf of Congressman Slemp, in Bristol, on October 7.

WILL ATTEND MEETING OF THE SUPREME LODGE

Southern Representatives of Fraternal Union Leave for Denver Sunday.

The third quadrennial meeting of the Supreme Lodge of the Fraternal Union of America, with home offices in Denver, Col., will be held there September 8 and will be in session for several days.

Leopold, of Savannah, Ga.; W. W. Blanchfield, of St. Petersburg, Fla.; W. O. McDonald, of Charleston, S. C.; Dr. T. L. Burgess, of Memphis, Tenn. The Fraternal Union of America is a fraternal beneficiary society with southern headquarters in Atlanta, Ga. Mr. Newman Laser has been looking after the organization work from the Atlanta office since 1897. He is one of the best known secret order men in the south. Colonel Shepard Bryan has been appointed chairman of the committee on laws and Hon. Wm. H. Leopold will be chairman of the committee on resolutions.

FOR LABOR DAY PARADE HARD WORK BEING DONE

Longest Army of Wage Earners Ever in Line in the City Expected.

The Labor day parade on the first Monday in September promises to be one of the largest and most attractive Atlanta has ever known.

The various committees having the work in charge have been diligent in perfecting the different lines, and when the chief marshal starts the line of march from Forsyth and Mitchell streets, the longest army of wage earners ever assembled in the south will be set in motion.

The float committee has not yet indicated the nature of the federation float, but the members of that committee have promised that it will surpass all previous displays in that line. The float to be shown by the women members of the federation is being designed solely by the women federationists, and they are doing their utmost to make their creation more attractive than that of the federation itself. The business men of Atlanta who have asked for permission to enter the floats have promised the chairman of that committee, C. R. Rowell, floats of artistic tastes.

Rome will send down a special train of federated workingmen with a brass band, while Lithonia and Stone Mountain will have as large a representation in line as ever before, and more than once, Lithonia has captured the prize for numerical strength. The music committee, J. B. Hewitt, chairman, has secured every brass band in the city for the parade.

TO PREACH AT ST. LUKE'S ON THE NEGRO PROBLEM

Rev. W. R. Scarritt, who is filling the St. Luke's Episcopal church pulpit during the absence of the pastor, Dr. Wilmer, will preach tomorrow on "The Negro Problem—What Are You Going to Do About It." Mr. Scarritt is a Harvard man, and his residence is in Boston. For the past two years he has been in Milledgeville, Ga., and has had some opportunity to study the problem in the south. He will give his views from the standpoint of his observations, both in New England and in the south.

Shoots Self in Head.

Winston-Salem, N. C., August 26.—S. Walter Tise, for twenty-two years manager for the Western Union Telegraph office, committed suicide at 1:15 o'clock this afternoon by shooting himself through the head with a pistol brrowed from a local dealer a few minutes before. No cause is given.

First Cotton Shipped.

Galveston, Texas, August 26.—Two cargoes of this year's cotton was shipped from Galveston to Europe today, and is presumably the first shipment of this season's crop sent out from an American port. The cargoes aggregate 14,650 bales, valued at approximately $1,500,000. The cargoes were destined for Barcelona and Liverpool.

Killed by an Auto.

Little Rock, Ark., August 26.—H. R. Clapton, traveling salesman for Crane & Co., Chicago, who was injured in an automobile wreck here Sunday morning, when a 45-horse power automobile turned over on him, died at noon today. Three others who were injured at the same time will recover.

"STUNG" FOR $95 IN EFFORT TO COLLECT $100 BET HE WON

Wouldn't it make you sore if, after winning what you believed to be a perfectly good check for $100 on the governor's race, you found that the man who drew the check had only $5 in the bank? And, if on top of this you lost $95 in good hard cash attempting to collect that measley "five spot," how WOULD you feel?

If you have any doubt about the sensations a perfectly normal experience under these circumstances, there is at least one progressive young Atlantan who is competent to tell you about it.

This chap—Mr. W.—believing that ex-Governor Hoke Smith would win over Governor Brown in the race for governor, made a bet with an acquaintance of his, a Mr. J. The amount was $100, and each turned over a check for this amount to a mutual acquaintance.

After the race was over and it became certain that Mr. Smith had won, W. went to the stakeholder and the two checks were turned over to him. In the meantime, however, J. had decided that it was doubtful about W.'s check being good, and decided not to pay the money if W. won. Accordingly he telephoned the bank on which the check was drawn to withhold payment if it was presented. He thought at the time that he had ample funds on hand to cover the check.

It developed, however, when W. presented the check that J. had only $5.40 to his credit in the bank. W. was fighting mad—so mad, in fact, that he swore he'd have that measly $5 if it cost a leg. Consequently off he went, found a friend he could "touch" and borrowed $94.60.

Back to the bank he went, still swearing, to get that $5 or know the reason why. He marched up to the receiving teller's window and planked down the $94.60, ordering it placed to J.'s credit. This, it will be seen, would validate the check W. held and would allow him to get $100 in return.

But W. had reckoned without his host, for when he again presented the $100 check at the paying teller's window, telling him of what he had done, he got the surprise of his life.

It took the teller almost five minutes to stop laughing, and when he did, it was to inform W. that since his former trip, payment on that particular check had been stopped, and since he had deposited the $95 to J.'s credit, he was not only "out" the money he thought he was about to win, but his own 95 plunks.

What is going to happen when W. next meets J. is hard to predict, but it is better than an even bet (with real money and not checks) that there'll be something in the wind. W. outweighs J. by almost 100 pounds, but judging by the way J. managed to get his hands on $95 of W.'s coin instead of paying a $100 election bet, his friends are backing him to come out anything but second best.

Madriz Told to Move On.

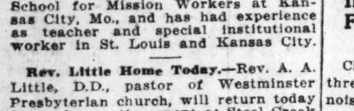

Washington, August 26.—Honduras officially has invited Dr. Madriz, the deposed president of the Nicaraguan government at Managua, to move on. This information was received at the state department today from its diplomatic representatives. It accounts for the announcement that Madriz, who fled from Nicaragua to Amapala on the little Honduran island, just beyond the Nicaraguan border, is to leave Monday for Mexico.

Duke to Wed Miss Elkins.

Paris, August 26.—Special dispatches from Italy insist that the marriage of Miss Katherine Elkins to the Duke of the Abruzzi, in spite of all denials, has been decided upon and that Senator Elkins and the affianced couple will soon arrive in Paris to arrange the details of the wedding. Both the queen mother of Italy and King Emmanuel have, according to these reports, given their consents to the wedding.

PROBE IS ORDERED OF JURY-TAMPERING

New Turn Taken at the Trial of Browne, Accused of Bribery.

Chicago, August 26.—The second trial of Lee O'Neil Browne, minority leader of the last legislature, charged with purchasing votes to elect William Lorimer to the United States senate, took a new turn today, when Judge Brentano ordered a special grand jury to assemble August 30 to investigate charges of perjury and other matters.

Judge Brentano ordered the grand jury on a petition from State's Attorney Wayman. The prosecuting attorney maintained complete secrecy as to the purpose of the special grand jury. In the courtroom, however, it was declared the matter of jury-tampering, resulting in the extreme difficulty to obtain a jury for the present case, will be investigated.

The trial and the grand jury investigation will proceed simultaneously after August 30, and it is said tonight the results of the investigation may put an entirely new appearance to the bribery trial.

The defense today called numerous character witnesses from Browne's home, Ottawa, Ill. These testified that his general reputation for honesty and integrity was good. An adjournment was taken until tomorrow morning.

FOR "CRAFTING" THEY FACE COURT

High Officials of Illinois Central on Trial.

First Witness Brings in Name of Rawn and Tells of Organization of Company to Rob Illinois Central by Rendering Fraudulent Bills for Repairs.

Chicago, August 26.—Attorneys for three former high officials of the Illinois Central railroad, Frank B. Harriman, fomerly general manager; John M. Taylor, storekeeper Charles I. Ewing, superintendent of the lines of the Ohio river, received a setback on the first day of their criminal trial today when Judge Bruggemeyer refused the defendants a bill of particulars or a change of venue.

The men are charged with participating in frauds by which the railroad is alleged to have been mulcted out of more than $1,000,000, through inflated car repair bills. After listening to arguments, Judge Bruggemeyer announced that testimony would be taken and reserved the right to hear arguments later as to a bill of particulars.

Names of Officials Brought In.

Despite objections by attorneys for the defense, the names of Ira J. Rawn, former president of the Monon, who met death recently by a bullet wound; J. E. Bunker and William Renshaw, former superintendents of machinery of the Illinois Central, were brought into the case in the testimony of Phil Reuther, former general manager of the Osterman Car Company, now employed as a contracting engineer of the Illinois Central. His testimony was placed in the record, but the court asserted it might be stricken out later, if attorneys for the prosecution failed to prove it material.

Reuther testified as to the organization of the Osterman Company, a concern to which Illinois Central cars were sent for repairs. He declared he had been ousted from his position as general manager and director that John M. Taylor, one of the defendants, might be made director.

Counsel for the defense sought to prevent further examination of the witness, asserting that the Osterman Company was not on trial.

Alleged Fraudulent Bills.

"What do you expect to prove of this witness?" was asked of Mr. Fisher.

"I mean to show," he answered, "that material was sent the Osterman Company by Taylor, which was not paid for and that fraudulent bills subsequently were rendered that the Illinois Central Company paid."

Reuther then narrated a conversation he declared Osterman had held with him, in which the car company's head told of presenting Taylor with a block of 2,000 shares in the company, adding that he would present a similar block to Ira G. Rawn, at that time vice president of the road; Frank B. Harriman, J. E. Bunker, assistant superintendent of machinery, and to William Renshaw, superintendent of machinery of the Illinois Central.

Reuther said:

"One day I was walking through the yards with Osterman when we came upon a huge pile of lumber. He pointed to it and said:

"'How much do you think that pile of lumber is worth, Reuther?'

"I told him I did not know, and asked him where he expected to get the money to pay for it.

He Would Get Money.

"He replied that the lumber was worth at least $15,000 and said he would get the money to pay for it.

"Awhile later we came upon many tiers of brass journals and other brass car parts. He said, 'There's some easy money.'

"I said he had better lookout for that easy money business or he would get into trouble. Osterman replied:

"'Oh, Taylor will take care of that.'"

Court adjourned late in the afternoon and hearing of testimony will be resumed Monday.

Attorney Tyrell, for the defense, after adjournment, declared he would introduce affidavits by all of the defendants showing the court was prejudiced, and again ask for a change of venue.

Human Hibernation.

(From The Kansas City Star.)

"The human hibernation that goes on in the Russian province of Pskov has a good deal of interest for scientists. In fact, several committees will visit Pskov this winter to study the human hibernators there.

"These poor peasants have very little to do in the winter and very little to eat. So they lie down in their beds with a bottle of water and a few loaves, and sleep and nibble, sleep and nibble, till the coming of spring.

"A man of 180 pounds will sleep forty-eight hours, awake and take a sip of water and a mouthful of bread, then fall asleep again for forty-eight hours more. A loaf and a bottle of water will last him a fortnight. When, four months later, he rises, pale and weak, and begins to plow the soil, his 180 pounds have fallen to 110, but otherwise he is well enough. Indeed these Pskov hibernators are noted for their longevity.

MACON PLATFORM TO BE FOLLOWED

Atlanta Document To Be Very Similar.

Will Favor Strengthening Registration Law, Regulating the Public Service Corporations, and Governing Investment of Foreign Capital.

Although no definite announcement has been made concerning the platform which will be adopted by the convention when former Governor Hoke Smith is nominated for governor in Atlanta on September 1, it is authoritatively stated that it will conform largely to the Macon platform which was adopted on the occasion of Mr. Smith's election for governor four years ago.

Governor Smith is quoted as having stated that the platform will reaffirm his position regarding the proper supervision and regulation of railroad companies and other public service corporations, and will adhere to his past course of favoring the legitimate investment of foreign capital.

The platform will also declare in favor of strengthening the registration law and of throwing stronger restrictions around the ballot box so as to drive money out of politics.

Governor Smith stated Friday that he could not discuss the details of the platform as he has not had sufficient time after the election to give it proper consideration.

The governor-elect has received several thousand letters and telegrams congratulating him upon his election, and he has been busy reading and answering as many of them as he could.

VETS TO ORGANIZE NEW ATLANTA CAMP

Benefit Feature Planned for the New Organization.

A large number of confederate veterans, some members of local camps and others who are not, will assemble in the court-room of Justice S. P. Landrum, on Decatur street, this afternoon at 3 o'clock to organize an entirely new camp.

It is planned to have a benefit feature for the new organization whereby its members during sickness or calamity will be helped by funds coming from a treasury maintained by regular dues.

V. A. Wilson, a veteran of the Seventh Georgia regiment under General Longstreet, who lives at East Point, already has secured a list of over thirty veterans anxious to join, and everything is declared to be in readiness for perfecting organization.

A name for the camp will be selected and it is probable that the name of "Longstreet" will be suggested. In this camp politics and personal dissensions will be barred.

China's First Woolen Mill.

(Peking Dispatch to The New York World.)

The Imperial Woolen Mill is now turning out cloth at the rate of $432,000 yards a year, and its success is such that other plants of the kind are in prospect by the government, to the end that China will get along eventually. It is hoped in official circles, without much importation from England and other countires.

The P'u Li Mill, the pioneer of its kind, is on the Pekin-Kalgan railway, six miles north of Peking. It was built under the supervsion of the board of military affairs for the purpose of making uniforms for the Chinese army and navy. The plant is of brick, with steel-trussed roof and cement floors, and covers four acres.

FEAR GIRL IS A VICTIM OF THE WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC

The Atlanta detectives are looking for Miss Josie Schulton, of Dobbs Ferry, N. Y. The parents of the young woman have written to the police department that they have reasons to believe she is a victim of the white slave traffic, and that she is being held in Atlanta.

The missing woman is described as being prepossessing in appearance, of average height and with brown eyes and dark hair.

The girl's mother wrote the letter to the police department and inclosed a photograph of the missing woman. In the letter the writer, who signs herself Mrs. Paul Schulton, says that her daughter was led to believe by a man named Charles Dorsey, that she could secure a good position in Atlanta, and that her parents reluctantly consented for her to leave home. That was last April.

"Mr. Dorsey promised us," writes the mother, "to let us know our daughter's address as soon as she secured the position he had spoken about. We waited, and at last came to the conclusion that our daughter had become a victim of the white slave traffic."

Mrs. Schulton begs the police to find her lost daughter, and says just as soon as she is located, both mother and father will come to Atlanta at once.

"This is not the first letter of the kind we have received," states Detective Sergeant Lanford. "We have had others, but we have never yet been able to find the missing woman. It is more than probable that if the young women are victims of designing men, they are taken to other cities than the ones given as their destination. So when people are led to believe a young woman is going to Atlanta to get work, the probability is that she goes somewhere else—to some western town, perhaps. This would be done to throw the officers off the track. However, we will do all we can to find the missing girl from Dobbs Ferry, and if we locate her and find that she has been wronged, we will do some arresting and prosecuting."

SCOUTS GIVEN BIG RECEPTION

THEATERS

At the Forsyth.

There is a great interest in the announced opening of the Forsyth. This event will be recorded on Monday afternoon, starting the regular season of daily matinees and night performances, and because of connections that have been made with Louisville, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Nashville and Chattanooga a better grade of vaudeville than has ever been seen in Atlanta will be served this season. The opening bill is of unusual interest, because Mrs. Eva Fay is headliner. Mrs. Fay is a social, as well as vaudeville favorite. Her engagement of two weeks at the Orpheum last season established her as one of the strong cards of vaudeville locally and she made hundreds of friends who will be delighted to greet her.

At the Lyric.

The long and successful engagement of Miss Emma Bunting and her stock company at the Lyric is now rapidly drawing to a close. Today the final performance will be given for matinee and night of "At Cozy Corners," the pretty comedy drama which has been amusing the audiences all the past week. It is in these sort of plays that the little actress shines preeminently and never fails to please her admirers. Beginning Monday night, a dramatic version of Ouida's "Moths" will be the bill for the last week of Miss Bunting's stay at the Lyric.

The man about to pay his fare on a pay-as-you-enter car dropped a dollar, which fell to the platform and rolled off across the pavement into an opening, where it disappeared.

The loser watched its course.

"It wouldn't have gone half as far if I'd spent it," he said.—Buffalo Express.

"What you want to do is to have that mud hole in the road fixed," said the visitor.

"That goes to show," replied Farmer Corntossel, "How little you reformers understand local conditions. I've purty nigh paid off a mortgage with the money I made haulin' automobiles out o' that mud hole."—Washington Star.

$184,000 CHANGES HANDS IN TWO DEALS

Enoch C. Jones Pays $4,000 Per Front Foot for Marietta St. Land.

Two central real estate deals, involving $184,000, were put through in Atlanta yesterday. Enoch C. Jones bought 33 Marietta street, paying therefor $104,000, while Reuben R. Arnold and Carlos H. Mason purchased the four stores at 27 to 29-A West Mitchell street for $80,000.

The Marietta street property, which was bought from the Hulsey estate, brought a record price for this section. The lot, which is the second south of Broad street, has a frontage of 26 feet, making the price paid by Mr. Jones an even $4,000 per front foot. The lot on the northeast corner of Broad and Marietta streets, adjoining the purchase, is already owned by Mr. Jones.

While making this purchase, Mr. Jones disposed of the property purchased by Messrs. Arnold and Mason. This property has a frontage of 50 feet on Mitchell street, carrying the purchase price of $80,000 up to $1,600 per front foot. The property is on the north side of Mitchell street, between Broad and Forsyth streets.

J. T. Kimbrough made both deals.

It was only a short time ago that Mr. Jones bought this property for $60,000, at which price the seller made a profit of $33,000 over the price he paid.

For more than two months past there has been a dearth of big sales in the city, but with the election a-thing of the past, and with the fall almost here, real estate men are confidently expecting that business will begin to grow better quite rapidly.

DRUNKENNESS CLASSED AS A MENTAL DISEASE

Habitual Drunkards to Be Sent to Hospital for Treatment.

Paterson, N. J., August 26.—The authorities of Passaic county have decided that habitual drunkenness is a mental disease, a form of insanity rather than a crime, and persons who are adjudged habitual drunkards will hereafter be committed to the regular insane hospital for treatment. The first cases to be so disposed of came up here this week and resulted in an order by County Physician Armstrong committing Sadie Drew, 50 years old, and Jeannette Phyllis, 45 years old, to the state asylum at Morris Plains.

Both are old offenders and have spent the greater part of the last twenty years in the county jail, their sole offense being intoxication.

Macon, Ga., August 26.—(Special.)—A negro searching for a watermelon with a torch in his house in the Buckeye district, on the Waterville road, started a fire last night that destroyed eighteen tenant houses before the flames ate their way out.

THE WEATHER TODAY: SHOWERS PROMISED

And, With the Expected Rain, Will Come Slight Drop in Temperature.

"Showers Saturday."

Such was the official forecast handed out from the weather bureau yesterday afternoon by Assistant Weather Forecaster Reed.

The weather office does not expect a very heavy rain, and if it rains at all the showers will be sufficient only to settle the dust and cool the atmosphere, which will not be altogether out of place, considering that the dust raised by the defeated candidates while beating it to the woods after the election has not all settled yet. The weather will probably be slightly cooler.

"Life in a large and hustling city like Atlanta is filled with queer and sometimes harrowing experiences for the man whose mournful lot in life has been cast among the classic shades of a drowsy village like Wilmington, N. C.," remarked The Gopher.

"A man who lives in Wilmington, but can't help it because he was born there, came over to Atlanta for to visit his friend a day or so ago. While standing on a Whitehall street corner counting the street cars he carelessly placed his hand on the handle of the fire alarm box and pulled down on it.

"When something on the inside began to buzz like a circle saw ripping through an oak log, he looked around with a hunted look on his face and asked his friend, 'What the bloomin' thing meant.'

"'Why, that's a fire alarm box and you've turned in the fire alarm,' was the reply. It means a $200 fine for anybody to ring that thing when there is no fire, and if you know of a nice, quiet hole in some convenient wall, I'd advise you to take a sneak thither with all possible speed.'

"The man from Wilmington needed no second warning and by the time pedestrians in the vicinity could take a second look he was a fast diminishing blur in the distant landscape."

HE WAS CERTAINLY TRAVELING SOME.

ASSUMED NAME HELD TO BE PERFECTLY LEGAL

New York, August 26.—A New York court has ruled that an assumed name is legal and may be recognized in the courts. The decision declares "that a person may assume any name other than his or her own and that such person may sue under that assumed name legally, also that such assumed name is to all intents and purposes as legal as though the person had been born to it."

This decision was made in the course of a suit for breach of promise brought by Miss "Fay Darling" against a wealthy New Yorker. The latter in his answer set up as a part of his defense that the true name of the plaintiff was not Fay Darling, but Fannie Steimeir, and that "her name had never been changed by any order of the courts allowing or permitting the plaintiff to assume or use the name of Fay Darling."

Harry Pugh Fatally Shoots the Porter and a Passenger.

Ellis, Kas., August 26.—Harry Pugh, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., became insane on the Pullman car of a Union Pacific train near here early today and fatally shot the porter, named Young, and a passenger, named Temple, of Kansas City, Mo.

Pugh shot through the end of his berth into the smoking room. The car porter ran toward Pugh's berth, and was shot twice through the body. Dr. H. H. Temple, who was en route from Denver with his wife and child, sprang into the aisle, and Pugh shot him twice through the abdomen.

The conductor and brakeman then overpowered the passenger, and he was placed in jail here. Temple was taken from the train at Ellsworth, unconscious, apparently in a dying condition, and placed in a hospital. Young was taken to Kansas City.

Pugh is about 28 years old, and of prosperous appearance.

ZETTLER'S STATEMENT ON DEFEAT FOR OFFICE

B. M. Zettler, who was a candidate for state school commissioner, has sent the following card to The Constitution:

Editor Constitution: I feel that my defeat was due to my meager opportunity of bringing the affairs of the office for which I offered to the attention of the people. They were absorbed with other races that seemed to them more important than mine. Under the circumstances the vote I received was very gratifying.

I am especially pleased that my native county, Effingham, and the two in which I did the chief work of my life, Chatham and Bibb, gave me handsome majorities. And gratifying beyond expression is the fact that in another county reported as giving me a majority my only correspondent was an old army comrade into whose face I have not looked since we parted on the battlefield of Manassas.

One incident only of my campaign I beg to mention—an incident that at the moment awakened emotions at once pleasant and disquieting. It was only a remark, just a bit too frequent, I thought; an expression of surprise at my vigorous condition by persons meeting me for the first time, and, in some instances, just after voting for my opponent.

For the support given me by veteran comrades, by former associates in school work and many who had been my pupils or in the schools under my charge, and by all who helped me by kind words or their votes, I am sincerely, deeply grateful.

B. M. ZETTLER.

QUAIL OUT OF SEASON SERVED AT FISH DINNER

Episode Is the Subject of Inquiry in New York City.

Albany, N. Y., August 26.—The fact that Stuyvesant Fish's French cook served quail out of season at a dinner given in New York by Mrs. Fish on February 12, 1907, and the failure of the forest, fish and game commission to prosecute Mr. Fish for alleged violation of the game law are being made subjects of inquiry by Commissioners Clark and Austin, who are conducting an investigation into the affairs of the fish and game commission.

The incident led to an unpleasant interview between Zelah B. Strong, assistant United States district attorney of Brooklyn, who was representing the department in New York at the time, and John R. Ward, chief counsel for the commission, Strong having intimated that outside influences were being exerted in the settlement of the cases by the department.

Mr. Ward, who was on the stand, told the commissioners that he thought the Fish episode an "innocent infraction of the law," and that while he may have erred, he did not believe it was the duty of a self-respecting department to prosecute such technical violations.

Dr. J. B. Rich, supposed to be the oldest native in New York city, died there recently at the age of 100. He ran away to sea when 10 years old, jumped overboard because of mistreatment at Funchal, Madeira, was rescued by a French ship and adopted by a Paris diplomat who happened to be on board.

SEEK TO IMPROVE MARRIAGE LAWS

Commission Holds Important Session.

Uniform Law Regarding Desertion Was Favorably Passed Upon—It Will Be Submitted to Different State Legislatures for Adoption.

Chattanooga, Tenn., August 26.—The commission on uniform state laws now in conference in the federal building, had one of the most important sessions in its history today.

The principal work of the session was the report of the committee on marriage and divorce, including the second tentative drafts of acts on the subjects of marriages and licenses to marry and family desertion and non-support. These reports were prepared under the direction of the commissioners of uniform state laws in national conference. It is believed that the formulated acts will be generally accepted by the different state legislatures.

Publish the Bans.

The longest steps in advance of existing laws attempted to be taken by the committee on marriage and divorce in its drafts of a marriage act proved that something in the nature of bans be published as prerequisites of a valid marriage. The object of the provision is to take the matter to a court for adjudication as to the validity of the objection. This at first glance appeared revolutionary, but upon inspection will be found to be along the line of previous legislation in a few states, although it is an advance over all such legislation.

Just before adjournment at noon today, the commission, after a thorough discussion, adopted the act relating to desertion and non-support of wife by husband, or children by father, or mother. The act makes desertion without lawful excuse a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not exceeding $500, or imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, in the discretion of the court. The act will be submitted to various states for adoption by their legislatures.

Child Labor Law.

The committee proposing the laws, with the conference acting as a committee of the whole, are Edw. W. Frost, chairman; J. R. Thornton, Louisiana; Senecca M. Taylor, Missouri; F. L. Siddons, District of Columbia; Robert Snodgrass, Pennsylvania; John R. Emery, New Jersey, and Ernest Freund, Illinois.

The report of the special committee on uniform child labor law will be presented and discussed by the conference tomorrow morning. The conference will be addressed by Owen L. Lovejoy, of Georgia, general secretary of the Child Labor Association.

Amoskeag Mills Shut Down.

Manchester, N. H., August 26.—Fifteen thousand employees of the Amoskeag Cotton Manufacturing Company were thrown out of work today, when the seventeen mills of the plant closed for a period of fifteen days. Curtailment of production was the reason of the shut-down.

Cholera in Russia.

St. Ptersburg, August 26.—A slight improvement in cholera conditions in southern Russia is shown by the latest reports to the government sanitary bureau and to the Red Cross. This is taken as a sign that the epidemic is now on the wane. Reports to the sanitary bureau for the week of August 14 to 20, inclusive, give 16,106 new cases and 7,743 deaths as compared with 23,944 cases and 10,723 deaths for the previous week, making a grand total of 121,091 cases, and 85,030 deaths for this year's epidemic.

Real Devotion.

(From Judge.)

William H. Crane, the actor, says he first learned what true love is by accidentally overhearing a brief conversation between a young man and a very pretty girl.

"And you're sure you love me?" said she.

"Love you? echoed the young fellow. "Why, darling, while I was bidding you good-by on the porch last night your dog bit a piece out of the calf of my leg, and I never noticed it till I got home."

ST. ANDREW'S BAY ROAD PROSPECTS

J. E. Carter Says There Is a Big Future for the Road.

J. E. Carter, industrial agent of the Atlanta and St. Andrew's Bay railroad, was in Atlanta yesterday. He is a prominent Georgian, who has done excellent industrial work and who is now doing the best work of his life in the development of the Andrew's Bay section.

He says that this road, owned chiefly by an Atlanta man, A. B. Steele, is 82 miles in length, running from Panama City, on St. Andrew's bay, to Dothan, Ala., and that while he has no authority to speak for it, he feels sure that it is simply a question of time before it is extended to cross the Atlanta and West Point and the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic railroads, thus giving it direct connection to Atlanta and to Birmingham.

Mr. Carter says that St. Andrew's bay is the best harbor on the gulf coast, and that the expenditure of the money already appropriated by the government in deepening the water over the small bar at the mouth of the bay will open Panama City to 30 feet navigation, which will in time make it one of the most important of the gulf ports.

MAD DOG EPIDEMIC; FIVE SHOT IN ONE DAY

Police Officers Arrive in Time, However, to Prevent the Dogs Doing Harm.

With "dog day" season at its zenith, Atlanta is in danger of having an epidemic of mad dogs. Five were put to death by policemen yesterday, and there has hardly been a day during the past week that at least one rabid beast has not met the same fate.

The prompt arrival of police in each instance put "Fido" or "Bruno" in a place where he could clamp down on no human limbs, and so far no person is reported to have received a bite from the mad brutes.

Call Officer Hood on Friday put to death dogs at 251 Gordon street, 105 Oak street, at Peachtree and Kirkwood avenue, and a fourth in a negro section. Call Officer Roberts killed the fifth for the day at 684 Washington street.

CONSPIRACY CHARGED TO DEBAUCH VOTERS

The Men Accused With Sibley Are Arraigned in Court.

Warren, Pa., August 26.—Waiving a hearing on information charging them with conspiring to debauch the electors of Warren county, Joseph C. Sibley, who recently resigned as candidate for congress on the republican ticket in the twenty-eighth congressional district of this state; Frank R. Taylor, of Franklin; Charles D. Crandall, George B. Munn and D. M. Howard, of this county, were held for court trial here today by Justice of the Peace H. S. Perry.

All the defendants were present except Mr. Sibley, who, according to a physician's certificate, was confined to his home in Franklin with acute heart trouble.

Prior to the opening of court Justice Perry granted the prosecution the right to amend the original informations, by changing the date of the June primaries from the 4th to the 11th.

Built in Day.

(From The Christian Herald.)

The Central Christian church, of Peoria, Ill., was built in record-breaking time. It took just ten hours al itold to complete the structure ready for occupancy. One hundred and ninety men, members of the congregation, started to work at 8 o'clock, on the morning of May 30, and at 6 o'clock the evening chimes on other churches throughout the town were rung to announce the completion of the building.

The Rev. Turner, pastor of the church, conducted memorial services in the church at night. The material for the building was given by various concerns in Peoria and other cities.

PANAMA TO DEFY UNITED STATES

And Elect Dr. Carlos Mendoza to the Presidency.

Panama, August 26.—The political crisis, due to the reported intention of the United States to oppose as unconstitutional the election by the national assembly of Dr. Carlos Mendoza as acting president, is growing in intensity. The declaration of R. O. Morse, charge d'affaires, of the Panama legation, regarding the ineligibility of Dr. Mendoza, has united the liberal members of the assembly, whose prominent leaders have decided, it is said, to elect Mr. Mendoza first vice president and acting president without regard to the objections of the United States.

The Panaman government has as yet received no official confirmation or denial from Washington of the attitude reported to have been taken by the United States, although inquiries have been made by the Panaman minister to Washington, C. C. Arosemena, to ascertain the opinion of the department of state.

The friends of Dr. Mendoza publicly assert that they will elect him since the national assembly is the only corporation having the power and right to interpret the Panaman constitution and laws. They believe that the American government cannot and will not refuse to recognize the Panaman citizen chosen by the assembly, no matter who he may be.

ATTACKED BY BEES WHILE IN BATH TUB

Denver, Col., August 26.—Removing his bath robe and placing one foot in the cool water that filled his bathtub yesterday, Chapin Gard, a Denver mining man, was suddenly electrified by a series of sharp pains in practically every portion of his anatomy. At the same time a loud buzzing filled the room. Then followed turmoil.

Other occupants of the house who came to investigate the disturbance found Gard in the costume of a prehistoric warrior, vainly swinging a wet bath towel and waging a battle against a swarm of bees that had invaded the bath room through a hole in the window screen.

Good Fishing.

K. M. Wharry was telling some friends about a propohed fishing trip to a lake in Colorado he had in contemplation.

"Are there any trout out there?" asked one friend.

"Thousands of 'em," replied Mr. Wharry.

"Will they bite easily?" asked another friend.

"Will they?" said Mr. Wharry. "Why, they're absolutely vicious. A man has to hide behind a tree to bait a hook."

What Sandy Said.

(From Lippincott's Magazine.)

A group of Scotch lawyers were met convivially at an Ayrshire inn one cold evening last December. The conversation turned upon pronunciations.

"Now, I," said one of the barristers, "always say neether, while John, here, says nyether. What do you say Sandy?"

The hot tipple had made Sandy doze, and at the sudden question he aroused and replied, "I? Oh, I say whusky."

SHE WORE BLOOMERS FOR VERY MANY YEARS

Death of Dr. Lydia Hasbrouck, Pioneer in Dress Reform.

Middletown, N. Y., August 26.—Dr. Lydia Hasbrouck, a pioneer in the dress reform movement in this country, is dead here at the age of 83. Following Miss Bloomer in 1893 she adopted the bloomer costume, consisting of velvet bloomer trousers and short skirts. The costume caused her much inconvenience, for she was frequently refused admittance to public places, but she continued to wear them till her death. She was a graduate of the New York Medical College and had practiced in Washington. She lectured all over the country and was for many years president of the National Dress Reform Association.

The commonness of the name John is due to the fact that forty-nine days in the year are associated in the Roman calendar with some saint, martyr, confessor or beatus named John, and formerly one took his name from the saint on or near whose day he was born. In Domesday Book William is the commonest name, then Robert, then Walter. Magdalen used at one time to be a fairly popular name.

IN WATER TO NECK SHE HELD BABY UNTIL HUSBAND CAME TO RESCUE

Sedan, Kas., August 26.—Standing in 5 feet of water in the bottom of a cistern at her home near here, Mrs. John Burch, wife of a farmer, for eight hours held aloft her 2-year-old child, until the arrival home of her husband today.

The child had fallen into the cistern, and the mother, who saw the accident, immediately sprang after it, seized the baby in her arms, raised it above the surface of the water and called for help. No one was within hearing of the woman's calls, and throughout the greater part of the day Mrs. Burch stood, the water reaching up almost to her neck, and waited for the return of her husband from his work in the fields.

After being taken from the cistern, Mrs. Burch collapsed, and is dangerously ill, but the child suffered no illness.

STATE AUTO NUMBER PLATES WILL REACH ATLANTA SOON

The first consignment of automobile number plates for use under the new state automobile registration law which becomes effective on September 1, will arrive in Atlanta within the next week or ten days.

Secretary of State Phil Cook has let the contract for 10,000 number plates to the S. H. Quinn's Sons Company, of Philadelphia, and he received notice Friday that 2,000 of the number plates had been completed and shipped to Atlanta. It will require several days for them to arrive.

The secretary of state says that automobile owners who do not receive number plates by September 1 will have to continue the use of their present numbers until the tags arrive, or they may secure their numbers from his office and use a temporary number plate.

Up to date more than 700 automobile owners have registered with the secretary of state. He estimates that there are at least 10,000 cars in the state and the sooner they are registered with the secretary of state the sooner their numbers will be secured.

Too Much for His Faith.

"He ounce told me about a Philadelphia business man of skeptical tendencies who said to him:

"My dear Mr. Hare, I do not refuse to believe in the story of the ark. I can accept the arks enormous size, its odd shape and the vast umber of animals it contained. But when I am asked, my dea r doctor, to believe that the children of Israel carried this unwieldly thing for forty years in the wilderness—well, there, Im bound to say my faith breaks down."

PRINCESS FROM HONOLULA "PINCHED" BY THE POLICE

A Honolulu princess—a dusky belle from the far-away Hawaiian isles in the Pacific—was arraigned in the police court yesterday morning on the charge of walking about on the streets too late at night. Although as dusky as any belle of Atlanta's own Darktown, the Honolulu princess was one of the most distinguished actors that ever did a stunt at the police matinee.

She is a real actress, for she is doing a song and dance act at the Luna Park theater on Decatur street, which is a play house for the exclusive set of Darktown. She talks in a deep, trombone voice, just like all Honolulu natives. When asked by Assistant Recorder Preston what she was doing out on the streets at 2 o'clock in the morning, she replied:

"I am from Honolulu. I'm of the royal blood, your honor, and I am here in this American city performing at a theater. In my country we walk out nearly all night long because it is so warm, and I never dreamed that it was against the law of any country for people to walk the streets whenever they pleased him to run me in, and I stayed and told me if I didn't get in he would pinch me, and I spoke very politely and told him to do what he pleased and it pleased him to run me in, and I staid in a beastly cell all night."

"What do you do for a stunt at the Luna theater?" she was asked.

"I dance and sing," she replied.

The Honolulu princess gave her stage name as Rosetta Brannan, but her native name is something like Mattawa Uliuwa—at least that is the way it sounds—she couldn't spell it.

The acting recorder told the Honolulu princess that he thought she had been sufficiently punished by being locked up all night, but he warned her not to wander about the streets at late hours.

THE HONOLULU PRINCESS.

"When you are in Rome, do as Romans do," quoted the judge. "You may wander on the streets at night in Honolulu, but you can't wander that way over here."

"I wonder," exclaimed the dusky belle of the Pacific isle, and the acting recorder didn't know whether the Honolulu princess was trying to "josh" him or not. Anyway, she thanked him and went off to the Luna to rehearse for the Friday night performance.

TAFT DISCUSSES RACE PROBLEM

He Says It's Being Solved by Education.

Declares Present Situation in South Is Very Hopeful, Because Race Question Is Out of Politics---Taft Lauds Booker Washington.

Beverly, Mass., August 26.—President Taft attended at the home of Mrs. Robert S. Bradley, at Prides Crossing, this afternoon, a meeting of the board of trustees of Hampton institute, and delivered an address on negro education. The president especially pleaded for more liberal financial assistance for schools like Hampton and Tuskegee.

If Taft Had Millions.

In his address to the Hampton trustees Mr. Taft said;

"I am not a millionaire, and I have never had the feeling of one, but sometimes one's imagination takes life and you wonder what you would do if you had an income of five or six millions a year and had the ordinary feelings of a man who wished to help his fellowmen. It seems to me that one would like first to find those things to which he could be certain he might give his money and get a return of good to human kind, and in looking about, I am very sure that he could not find a place in which he could, for the benefit of human kind, invest his money with more certainty of returns than in Hampton institute.

"I think it does not speak quite well for all the gentlemen who are contributing generously to various causes that the head of an institution like Hampton, which is the beginning of a great movement to solve the race question in this country, should be obliged to go about seeking $100,000 a year. One hundred thousand dollars a year is the income on a certain number of millions and Hampton ought to have had those millions long ago.

Education to Solve Race Question.

"Hampton has done more than merely solve the race question in the proper way. It furnishes to the American educator a type of school that is now spreading throughout the country. It is interesting that it required the solution of the problem of the education of the negro to present to the white educators the best methods of educating the whites. One of the dangers that we are likely to fall into in the north in the education of the negro is to forget the very great necessity for a similar education for the whites in the south.

"Education is the solution of the race question, when it is directed toward giving the negro a self respect and a belief in the dignity of labor and in the necessity for his making himself a valuable member of the community in order that the white men may then give him what is his due.

Situation in South Hopeful.

"I believe the present situation in the south is one full of hope for the solution of the negro question, because politics is largely out of it. All interests are uniting in this movement to teach the ten million negroes how to support themselves, how to support the community in which they live and when their value in the community is demonstrated, as it is being demonstrated, the race question will have its solution.

"No one can read the lectures that Booker T. Washington has delivered to his own people without realizing that he is one of the greatest men of this country, and that he dares to tell them the truth in order that they may begin to build up their lives on a sure foundation."

KAISER'S CLAIM STIRS GERMANY

the emperor's constitutional position when the reichstag reassembles in November.

Speech Means a Storm.

The strongly monarchist Tageliche Rundschau, the favorite journal of army officers says:

"This speech means a storm. Never before has Emperor William set into such clear relief his romantic, medieval idea of his non-responsibility to man's judgment, of his not being bound by the constitutional cooperation of the people and of ruling by God's free grace, against all those convictions and feeling which today determine our existence as a state."

"Why," asks The Tageliche Rundschau, "should the emperor choose this moment to emphasize his ruling by God's grace and his own right, when it will nourish an anti-monarchical agitation and good monarchists be thrown into a condition of tragic disruption?"

From Heaven Alone.

The Lokal Anzeiger lays stress on the desire of the emperor that the people cooperate with him, and points out that the emperor delivered the speech in the castle where the Prussian kings were formerly crowned. He said in the same hall in May, 1890:

"We Hohenzollerns take our crown from heaven alone," and in the same place on September 6, 1894, he quoted the words of his grandfather, William I., about ruling by divine right, and added:

"So, too, do I take my kingdom by God's grace."

The Tageblatt affirms that although prices did not fall on the exchange, trading slackened and brokers apprehended an unfavorable influence of the speech on markets at home and abroad.

Kaiser Advises Women.

Criticising the suffragette movement the kaiser reminded the housewives of his empire it was his belief they should rule the world from the fireside and the cradle, and, incidentally, added that women should furnish the inspiration for heroic militarism.

German women, said the emperor, should learn from Louise of Russia that their duty does not lie in participating in public meetings and societies nor in attaining supposed rights in the exercise of which they may be able to do the same things as men, "but in quiet work at home and the family."

Kaiser Likened to Roosevelt.

London, August 26.—The Times in an editorial today dealing with the speech of Emperor William says:

"History is not likely to regard it as an accident that the two figures whose eloquence reached furtherest in the western world of their day should have insisted in language so similar in its directness and force on the simple human obligations which men and women were seeking to escape. Emperor William and Colonel Roosevelt do not preach from the same text, but the moral of their preaching is the same."

Still a Rich Man.

(From The "Interpreter," in The September American Magazine.)

"I heard once of the pathetic statement of a member of the legislature who had returned from the races looking dejected. 'How did you come out, Tom?' he was asked. 'I lost everything I have in the world but my vote on the insurance bills,' he replied."

after the convention. Personally I am against making the pet theories of demagogues political issues. Roosevelt says he is against crooks. So am I, and so is every honest man. He is hardly helping the party by the course he is taking, but he is getting the personal advertisement that he so much desires."

None of the "old guard" leaders assembled at the headquarters here had any comment to make on Colonel Roosevelt's speech at Carroll, Iowa, in which he declared war on the "bosses."

Roosevelt Going to Convention.

The most interesting development of the day found expression in reports from Nassau county, Long Island (Colonel Roosevelt's county), that republican leaders there had determined that he shall be a delegate to the state convention, probably to lead the Nassau delegation. Mr. Roosevelt has said all along that he should probably attend if chosen as a delegate.

Darwin R. James, of Brooklyn, politically conspicuous as a fighter for direct primaries, the main bone of contention between the "old guard" and the so-called progressives, gave out some historical data through Mr. Griscom today, purporting to show that three years ago Mr. Woodruff was a champion of the direct primary.

Taft Done With New York Fight.

Beverly, Mass., August 26.—Indications continue to multiply here that President Taft's participation in the New York state fight is ended for good and all and he will leave the situation to be handled in its entirety by the party leaders, including Theodore Roosevelt. The president will have nothing to say as to candidates or platform. He is not a resident of New York and he does not feel it to be the province of the president of the United States to interfere or dictate in local fights.

Mr. Taft was drawn into New York politics reluctantly. He was glad to see the various leaders as they called and he urged upon all the importance of trying to bring about an amicable adjustment of affairs prior to the state convention. This it appears was impossible and now the fight goes to the convention. Mr. Taft will keep "hands off."

According to recent callers at the summer White House the president feels far more keenly than he let appear in his letter to Mr. Griscom the false light he was placed in by anonymous statements issued from Oyster Bay and New York.

PROF. WILLIAM JAMES SUMMONED BY DEATH

Noted Philosopher and Brother of Henry James, the Author.

Chicorua, N. H., August 26.—Professor William James, of Harvard university, one of America's foremost philosophers, did today at his summer home here. Although he had been ill for some time, his death was unexpected.

Professor James had been at his summer home here only a week, having arrived at Quebec last Friday from Europe, where he had been abroad traveling for several months. He had gone abroad originally to be at the bedside of his brother, Henry James, the noted English author, who was sick.

Professor James became ill about a month ago and his further travels were shaped homeward by easy stages. The condition of the aged philosopher was not considered such as to call for extraordinary measures, but at Quebec Professor James was taken in care by his son, William James, Jr., and came immediately to his summer home here.

You'll enjoy Maud Powell's exquisite violin solos

"Our" Maud Powell, as her admirers love to call her, is one of the few artists who shows year after year greater development in tone, technique and interpretation. There is nothing of pose or virtuoso affectation about her—she loves the work she is doing and her heart and mind are wholly in it.

So eminent a musical authority as Henry T. Finck says: "When Maud Powell plays, one thinks not of bowing and fingering, of staccato or legato, of harmonics or double-stops, of trills—though they be, as hers are, Melba-like in their perfection; one thinks only of the music. Like a great actor, she makes one forget the player in the art."

And the perfection reached by the new Victor process of recording was never shown to better advantage than in these three marvelous new records, which reproduce perfectly every little detail and delicacy of tone with all the original brilliancy.

fact that St. Louis, Chicago and Atlantic City all sent invitations.

The Constitution has received the following telegram from Councilman W. T. Winn, a member of the Atlanta delegation:

"St. Paul, Minn., August 26.—Mayor Maddox's speech yesterday received an ovation. He was today unanimously elected first vice president, and Atlanta unanimously chosen as the next meeting place. Atlanta delegation is proud of results. Delegation will visit Milwaukee and other cities inspecting crematories before return.

ROBBERS FOILED BY THE TRAIN CREW

Des Moines, Iowa, August 26.—Eight men attempted to rob the Iowa Central passenger train, southbound from Minneapolis, near Northwood, early today. Members of the train crew succeeded in placing five of the men under arrest and they are held at Northwood.

The train was flagged and the robbers boarded the cars at Gordonville, just out of Northwood. The engineer and fireman were covered with pistols while the robbers began to relieve the passengers of their valuables. Later, when members of the train crew secured revolvers they turned the tables on the robbers.

HOT-WEATHER DIARRHEA

In the summer people of all ages are very subject to "running of the bowels." Germs get into the food or water, find their way into the intestines and keep irritating them, so that there is a constant desire to have movement.

USE DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN

It is very weakening, destroys appetite, disturbs sleep and produces an itchy feeling that many suppose to be piles. There are many "quick cures" for this aggravated form of dysentery, but they usually contain a narcotic, and that is dangerous. Others try salts and laxative waters, but they have no permanent effects. It takes a remedy with ingredients such as are combined in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to drive out the trouble-causing germs, to clean out the intestines, to strengthen the stomach and enliven the liver. Ordinary remedies cannot do this, but it is a well-known fact that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin does do it. Thousands use it every summer for this very purpose. Go to your druggist today and buy a 50-cent or $1.00 bottle and see what it will do for you. It is guaranteed to do what we claim or money refunded. It has enabled thousands of families to cure themselves of simple ailments. If you have never tried it, send your address for a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE to

OUCH! WHAT A TRIMMING

Edited By DICK JEMISON

GRIFFIN POUNDED BY THE TUMBLERS

Twelve Hits for Eight Runs Their Total.

Griffin Had Awful Day --- Juul Was Relieved by Thomas. Jordan Banished From Game. Crackers Then "Blew" --- Final Game Today.

By Hewey W. Laird.

Montgomery, Ala., August 26.—(Special.)—Whatever chances Atlanta may have had of winning Thursday's game were lost in the very first inning, when Otto Jordan was put out of the game by Arbiter Fitzsimmons for making uncomplimentary remarks regarding a decision of his umps, and Montgomery won the contest by the score of 8 to 1.

Juul was wild, and walked three men in the first round, but luck kept a score from resulting. In the third inning, however, the erratic pitching of the side-wheeler became too dangerous and Greminger chased him from the field and Dr. Forrest Thomas came on.

Six hits and a base on balls netted Montgomery four runs in the first inning, and with Jordan gone, this took all the ginger out of the Crackers, and they were never able to rally. The hitting of Greminger, Daley and Pratt was the feature of the game, as well as the fielding of Miller in center field. Only two hits were made off Thomas by the Atlanta sluggers, one of these being a triple by Fisher.

Saturday's game will be called at 3:15 o'clock, and the program is for Flaherty and Duggleby to attempt to break the Southern League time record for quick games, and if it is possible these two pitchers should be able to turn the trick.

Barons 7, Lookouts 3.

Birmingham, Ala., August 26.—In a weird exhibition this afternoon Birmingham won an easy game from Chattanooga. The visitors hit Covaleski hard, after the Barons had cinched the game, and in spite of his wildness, they were unable to score until errors took a hand. Selver was hit hard and was wild. He was also indifferent to a marked degree. His support was bad.

Errors, passes and hits were mixed up in the scoring and slow fielding had a hand also. Crandall was put out of the game in the eighth for objecting to a decision on a batted ball. The score:

SALLY LEAGUE CLOSES TODAY

Jim Fox's Columbus Team Has Copped the Rag.

The South Atlantic League season will be brought to a close today, and the pennant goes to the Columbus, Ga., team, captained by James Claudius Fox, the former Cracker first baseman, after a strenuous race, with the Macon club, under the management of another ex-Cracker, Perry Lipe, second.

Macon got the lead for awhile and led away with a good lead, but the pace was too strong, and they fell by the wayside, Columbus regaining the lead and holding it.

Two other ex-Crackers played a prominent part in helping Fox to win the pennant, Jesse Becker and Roy Radabaugh. Joe Phillips, formerly of Montgomery, and Elmer Benson, formerly of Mobile, were also of material assistance.

Macon will finish in the runner-up position, with Jacksonville in third place, Savannah fourth, Augusta, fifth, and Columbia sixth.

And speaking of Columbia. There is the gamest baseball town on the map. They have never had better than a tail-end team, but the crowds have been just as good, and sometimes better than the teams that have been up in the fight all the time.

To President W. R. Joyner, of Atlanta, is due a great deal of credit for the success of the league this season, for he has certainly acted like a man who was familiar with his job, and he has treated all teams fairly and impartially. Good luck, "Cap," for next season.

NATIONAL WINS ILLINOIS TROPHY

Livingstone Pilots Car Home on Elgin Course.

Hearne Won Fox River Trophy With Light Benz---Buck, in a Marmon Car, Captured Kane County Trophy---Some Minor Accidents During the Races.

Elgin, Ill., August 26.—Out of a potpouri of road races over the new 8½-mile course here today, three drivers and three cars emerged with distinguished honors.

A. Livingstone, spinning a mile a minute for 203.35 miles, annexed the major event, the Illinois trophy, with a National. C. D. Buck, who drove half of his race with one spring suspension broken, captured the Kane trophy, covering the 169.46 miles in 3:84:46.79. A. Hearne, who drove his own entry, a Benz, in the small car chase, took the contest for the Fox River trophy. His time of the 135.57 miles was 2:30:04.35. Livingstone averaged 60.6 miles per hour; Buck averaged 55, and Hearne 54. The pilot of the National made the entire trip without stopping—without even hesitating, in fact.

Hearne was similarly fortunate, but Buck stopped for a short time when his spring suspension broke.

Crane's Hard Luck.

Ned Crane suffered a heart-breaking experience. His Staver-Chicago car had worked consistently from fourth place to second, for which place he had a lead over Miller, the Warren-Detroit pilot. On the fifteenth lap, with only one more to go, the machine was disqualified because, as Starter Wagner explained, Grant, the mechanician, had failed to look behind him to see if it were necessary to make way for some driver desiring to pass him. Greiner, driving a National, was the man immediately behind, and he had to swerve violently to avoid hitting the Staver-Chicago.

There was but one accident, and that was not serious. W. Fritsche, who was at the wheel of a Cine, skidded into a ditch and wrenched his shoulder. The mechanician was slightly hurt in the shoulder, also.

Good Crowd.

A crowd estimated at from fifty to seventy-five thousand saw the contests. They began arriving at dawn, and by the time the sun had taken the frost out of the atmosphere they filled the stands and parking spaces. The attendance and the speed of the road, which surprised even the most sanguine, is believed to assure the annual renewal of the races.

The three contests were run simultaneously, which made hard work for the scorers.

Wagner Starts It.

Fred J. Wagner, who starts all the big races, sent the first car away at 10 o'clock to the second.

Great interest centered in the big automobile race. Livingstone started in the lead, and was never headed. He gained a little each lap, and at the finish was nearly thirteen miles ahead of the field. After the race, he said he had not pressed his machine during the last six laps.

He saw he had the race in hand, and remained content with avoiding any unnecessary strain on the machine.

WILL GO AFTER TIME RECORD

Montgomery, Ala., August 26.—In the Atlanta-Montgomery game Saturday an attempt will be made to break the world's record on time. Flaherty will pitch for Atlanta and Duggleby for the locals. They are the two fastest in the league in delivery of the ball and it is expected that less than an hour will be consumed, as all the players are being drilled today to keep up a fast pace.

KEIBER GOES BACK TO THE GIANTS

Ed Keiber goes back to the New York Nationals at the end of this Southern League season.

This fact might have been gathered from the bulletin of the National moguls except for the fact that Keiber was recalled from Newark instead of Atlanta.

Keiber was turned over to Newark by New York and secured by Atlanta from Newark. The Eastern League club has never properly recalled Keiber, but the local club will willingly waive that formal recall and Ed goes back to the big leagues in the fall.

St. Philip's v. Ga. Ry. & Elec.

The St. Philip's team, of the Sunday School League, will meet the fast and undefeated Georgia Railway and Electric Club at Ponce de Leon park this afternoon at 3:30. This team has played six games since the league closed, winning them all, and will try hard to break the Georgia Railway and Electric Company's winning streak.

YELLOW JACKETS TO PRACTICE SOON

Football Starts at Flats on September Fifteenth.

In less than three weeks the Georgia School of Technology football team will be called together for the first practice of the 1910 season.

When the prospects were last considered they were first-class for a good football team this fall. How the men will really stack up September 15, when they turn out for work, is another question.

The opening game will be played five weeks from Saturday.

Here is the Tech schedule:

October 1—Gordon Institute.
October 8—University of Chattanooga.
October 15—Mercer.
October 22—University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa.
October 29—Open.
November 5—Auburn.
November 12—Vanderbilt.

CHICKS WIN TWO.

Columbus, Ga., August 26.—(Special.)—Columbus dropped both games to Macon this afternoon, the first by the score of 3 to 1, and the second 2 to 0. There was nothing especially brilliant in the playing of either game; in fact, it was just a bit loose. Weems worked both games for the visitors and did pretty good work all the way through. Otis was up for the locals in the first and Radabaugh in the second. They both did good work. Another double-header tomorrow will close the season, with Columbus in the lead.

LATEST REPORTS FROM ALL THE MARKETS

AUGUST MADE BREAK AND THEN ADVANCED

Cotton Market Has Sensation in Fluctuations of August. Spot Cotton Quiet.

New York, August 26.—Big fluctuations in the price of August contracts were the feature in the cotton market today, a sharp early break, when notices were circulating, being followed by a sensational advance in the late trading, both movements resulting from a comparatively small volume of business. Other propositions were a shade easier, early, also, but later firmed up, and closing prices were steady, with August 22 and later months 8 to 14 points net higher.

The market opened steady at a decline of 21 points on August and 3 points lower to 3 points higher on the new crop. Cables were lower than expected, but at first recent sellers of the late positions showed a disposition to cover, owing to the failure of the weather map to indicate any general rain in Texas. The absence of aggressive bull support and the weakness of the near months soon checked the recovering, and shortly after the opening August sold off to 16.07, or 25 points net lower, while later positions eased to a net loss of from 1 to 5 points. Notices estimated at about 30,000 bales for August delivery were said to be circulating through the street, and appeared to have caused some scattering liquidation; but the little August offering was absorbed on the early break, and as soon as August began to firm up, later months did better on higher late cables, the Texas weather details showing only light showers yesterday and the forecast for a renewal of fair and warmer weather tomorrow. nI the late trading there seemed to be no August for sale of any consequence, and shorts bid the price up to 16.58, or 51 points above the low level of the morning, and 26 points above the closing figures of last night. The renewed strength of August tended to hasten covering for over the week-end, and closing prices were within 2 to 3 points of the best level for the day. Savannah reported a decline of 3-4 in spot, but southern markets generally were unchanged.

Rumors that preliminary replies to the National Ginners' Association suggested a bullish condition report next week helped the late advances.

Receipts of cotton at the ports today were 11,237 bales, against 9,633 bales last week and 11,924 bales last year. For the week 50,000, against 40,958 last week and 36,388 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 121 bales against 1,323 last year.

Spot closed quiet middling uplands, 16.40; middling gulf, 16.65; sales, 7,700 bales.

New Orleans Cotton.

New Orleans, August 26.—Spot cotton steady, unchanged; sales on the spot, 111 bales; to arrive, 45; low ordinary, 11 9-16 nominal; ordinary, 12⅜, nominal; good ordinary, 13 13-16; strict good ordinary, 14 12-16; low middling, 14¾; strict low middling, 14¾; middling, 15; strict middling, 15 3-16; good middling, 15⅝; strict good middling, 15 9-16; middling mail, 15 11-16; middling fair to fair, 16 1-16; fair, 16 1-8, nominal; receipts, 121; stock, 50,045.

Cotton futuers opened steady at a decline of 1 to 5 points on poor cables. The ring was undecided over the weather. Considerable rain in Texas was indicated on the weather may, but bulls were as willing to regard this as an unfavorable feature as bears were to look upon it as favorable. In the first hour of business, prices first lost 3 to 4 points, on the more actives, and then moved upward 6 points, standing at a net advance of 2 points. Private reports from Texas were that many sections had received copious rains, and that the drouth was effectually broken. These rains, the bulls claimed, were bound to do much damage to open cotton.

The market wore an oversold appearance all the morning. Very little demand came from the long side, but shorts were good buyers. The weather forecast predicted fair weather in the western belt, which increased the desire of shorts to cover. The movement of new cotton made still further increase, but little attention was paid to it. Toward noon the trading months were 9 points over yesterday's closing and 12 to 13 points up from the low of the morning.

At noon the market was quiet and steady, a couple of points down from the highest quotations. Letters and telegrams sent out by commission houses around noon were generally bearish in their tone, but the outside public showed little inclination to enter the market.

In the afternoon session the market was very steady, on short covering, in spite of lower spot markets in the south and reports of exceedingly heavy offerings of spots in Texas. At 2 o'clock prices were within 4 points of the highest marks of the day.

The market closed steady at a net advance of 9 to 10 points.

Dry Goods.

New York, August 26.—There was a steady flow of orders of moderate dimensions from jobbing houses located in nearly all parts of the country noted on the primary cotton goods market during the day. The local jobbing concerns did a good amount of business also. The cotton yarn market remains quiet. The business in wool, both domestic and foreign, is limited.

Argo, Jester & Co.'s

New York, August 26.—Except for more or less professional bushwhacking, trading is practically at a standstill, and prices move up or down within narrow limits, according to the inspiration which room traders derive from the daily news. Close observers of the trading say that a radical difference exists between the present situation and that of last year, in that the buying power is substantially less through the absence of hedge selling by both mills and producers, to say nothing of the practical elimination of the large straddle interest with the short end in this market. This reduction can, without exaggeration, it is said, be placed at two million bales, and must be offset by an increased buying for account of consumers, if any important advance is to be seen. As the early movement of new cotton is certain to be large, if present prices are maintained, traders are asking themselves if the outlook for improvement in business is good enough to warrant the expectation of a demand sufficient to prevent the cotton from weighing on the market. On the answer to this question will depend their attitude toward the market in the immediate future, whatever their convictions may be regarding the ultimate course of prices. At the moment the market looks very well evened up, and in shape to respond to any pronounced influence either way, with the situation, as a whole, still favoring purchases of substantial recessions, with the intention of averaging on a scale down if necessary.

Liverpool is due to open 1 or 2 points up.

ROOSEVELT'S TALK WALL STREET TOPIC

His Views Regarding Corporations Provoke Serious Discussion on Stock Exchange.

New York, August 26.—On the smallest everturn business this week today's stock market made a general recovery from the decline of yesterday, when rumors of frost in the northwest precipitated a general selling movement. These rumors were dispelled today and the decline in corn options resulted in a strong recovery by these stocks, which were weakest yesterday. The character of today's trading, however, together with its more than ordinarily narrow range, render serious discussion unnecessary. Business during the noon hour amounted to about 14,000 shares. The influential interests continued their policy of inactivity and manipulation, for the rise in certain stocks was so obvious as to work its own defeat.

Political factors, while no more pronounced than in the early week, tended toward further unsettlement. The enthusiasm of the crowds which are greeting Colonel Roosevelt on his western tour and the ex-president's speeches which reiterate his well-known views regarding corporations, provoked serious discussion in many conservative quarters.

Although yesterday's crop news was largely in the nature of a "scare," the fact remains that the eastern crop is still green, that its progress has been somewhat retarded by low temperatures and that the outcome will not be definitely ascertainable until well into the coming month.

Americans rallied in the London market and there was later buying here, but general markets abroad were quiet. The change in the technical monetary situation abroad was again reflected in the firmer settlement rates, which were influenced by the continental demand for gold. Foreign exchange here ruled easier, the demand for remittance by tomorrow's steamers being below the supply.

Grain markets were lower in keeping with corn and cotton, in which there was an early break in August options, which rallied partially. Textile conditions received a check in advices from New Hampshire and North Carolina, which reported further restriction of operations, the proposed shutdown in the New England section involving 15,000 hands.

Indications point to a small cash gain by the banks in their operations with the subtreasury for the week, but inasmuch as many direct shipments of currency have been made to interior points and Canada, the supposed gain may readily be turned into a loss. Bank clearings in the aggregate all over the country show a continued shrinkage, the loss for the week being over 20 per cent compared with last year. The reduced volume of clearings is again chiefly due to the marked falling off in this city, while Chicago, Pittsburg, Cleveland, Baltimore, Kansas City and San Francisco all report increases.

The bond market ruled steady throughout with no marked increase of operations. Total sales, par value, aggregated $763,000.

WHEAT DECLINED; WEAK ALL THE SESSION

Large Receipts in Northwest Caused Prices to Drop 3-8 to 5-8 Cent.

Chicago, August 26.—The wheat market was easy all day, sagging to a close ⅝ to ⅝ down. Corn fell away sharply, relieved from fear of immediate frost damage, finishing ⅞ to 1⅛ off. Oats felt the drag of the weak corn market and also sagged ½ to ⅝, while an unimportant trade in provisions left them generally unchanged in price.

The wheat pit was unimpressive, with no marked bearish or bullish stimulus. Fluctuations were comparatively narrow, with a downward tendency. Receipts here and in the northwest were large. An improved demand for cash wheat for domestic and foreign consumption kept the decline from becoming pronounced at any time. There was some transferring of September holdings to December. The close was easy all around, with September ⅝@½ to ½ down at 98⅜, after having moved between 99⅝ and 98⅛. December closed ½ to ½@⅝ off at $1.02¼.

Shorts who hastened to cover their lines of corn yesterday when frost was expected, resold today when higher temperatures were reported from the growing fields. The opening was sharply lower, and the bulls were unable later in the session to force values much away from the low point, although resting orders on the early decline stayed the market. Country offerings were limited, and cash corn was ⅝@1c lower. No. 2 yellow sold at 61¾@62¼. The close was weak, with September 1⅛ off at 60¼. December closed ⅞@1 to 1 down at 58⅛.

Oats were affected by the weakness in corn, but fell away less sharply. Receipts were liberal, although not equalling last year's record for the corresponding day. Cash oats declined ¼ to ½, and September was heavy. The close was weak and near to the bottom, with September ½c off at 34½. December closed ⅝c off at 36⅛.

Trade in hog products was of small volume, and largely confined to changing between September and January. Pork finished 2½ up to 10 down. Lard was unchanged to 5c down, and ribs 2½ to 5 up. Closing prices for the September product were: Pork, $21.02½; 10 down; lard, $11.97½, unchanged; ribs, $12.25, 5 up.

WEEK'S TRADE REVIEWED.

What Commercial Agencies Say About Business.

New York, August 26.—Dun's Review tomorrow will say that crop prospects are improving. Business confidence is strengthening as the harvests are being gathered and the period of the midsummer inaction draws to a close. On the other hand, renewed political activity makes for that uncertainty that tends to retard enterprise. That there has been and still is contraction in a number of important lines cannot be denied. But the contraction consists mainly of the reduction of speculation and in the cutting off of transactions for the future. There still remains the great business of supplying current needs; and reports from leading trade centers indicate that this business is beginning to expand as the fall season approaches.

In dry goods, notwithstanding the moderation displayed by buyers in purchases for the future, there are signs of expansion among the jobbers as the result of a better retail trade.

The footwear and hide and leather trades are unsatisfactory.

Recent developments in iron and steel appear to warrant expectations of a brisk revival in demand as the season advances and sentiment is now more cheerful than for some time past. It is customary for some improvement to occur with the approach of fall, and while at present the volume of actual business is only moderately increased, the larger number of inquiries being received hold out promise of greater activity in the not distant future. Advices from practically every section of the country indicate that consumers show more willingness to cover anticipated requirements while evidences are not lacking that producers in many instances are unlikely to make any further concessions in prices. Low prices on steel billets and sheet bars have brought out considerable inquiry in the Pittsburg district, and several sheet and tin-plate plants are reported to have covered their requirements on sheet and tin bars for the balance of the year.

Slight concessions in prices which first developed last week in the west on low and medium grades of footwear are now being made quite generally, but business on the whole is still quiet and unsatisfactory.

Coffee.

New York, August 26.—The market for coffee futures opened steady at a decline of 6 to 10 points under continued realizing and foreign selling. The decline was encouraged by the lower French market, but the Brazilian markets were reflected by the early official cables and the offers received from there for forward shipment continued firm, and there was a good demand at the decline in the local market from trade interests, shorts and fresh buyers, for long account. Prices showed little improvement during the middle of the day, but later rallied on continued bull support and rumors that one of the leading roasters would demand deliveries on near month contracts. The close was steady, net 5 points higher to 5 points lower. Sales 91,750 bags.

Many Rare Shakespeares.

(From The New York Times.)

The first four folios of Shakespeare from the library of the late Dr. Gott, Bishop of Truro, which sold at Sotheby's, in London, the other day for $14,750, are the same copies which realized $19,250 at the original sale in the same auction rooms of Bishop Gott's literary treasures in March 1907. At that time the four folios were bought in by the Gott family, presumably because the bidding did not go as high as was expected. The four folios at this recent sale were disposed of by the bishop's son, W. M. Gott.

It is said that this falling off in the public market value of these Shakespearean rarities is due to the fact that so many copies of the first folio have appeared in the present book auction season. It was only a few days ago that a first folio sold at Sotheby's for $10,000, the same copy a few years previously realizing in the same rooms $12,200.

The record prices for a first folio, London, 1623, is $18,000, obtained at Sotheby's three years ago for the Van Antwerp copy. Although the edition is believed to have consisted of 500 copies, of which 200 survive, less than 20 copies are perfect. Bishop Gott's copy, slightly imperfect, brought $9,000, or one-half as much as the Van Antwerp copy. The Gott second folio, London, 1632, which also had a few imperfections, fetched $1,050.

The bishop's copy of the third folio was the interesting and very rare variation bearing the 1663 imprint, and as originally issued, without the portrait and the seven spurious plays, although these latter had been inserted. Many collectors consider this as equal in rarity to the first folio. It brought $4,350. The fourth folio, printed in 1685, realized $380.

His Apology.

(From The Rohoboth Sunday Herald.)

Little Jim and Pat, the gardener, had been great pals, and when Pat went back to the "Ould Sod" to end his days and slow-witted Dutch Jan took his place, Jim was a very unhappy kiddie. After sundry unsuccessful affairs he waxed wroth, and one morning his father heard a temptest in the garden, culminating in "O, Jan, you're such a fool."

Father took matters in hand at this point, and an instant apology was next in order. Jim rebelled, but finally calmed his ruffled feelings and went to the aggrieved gardener, more in sorrow than in anger, with: "Jan, I—I'm awfully sorry you're a fool."

Railway whistles inflict torture on so many people that the efforts abroad to check the plague have won approval from the people. Austria has introduced a system of dumb signaling to start and stop the trains. Belgium is trying compressed air whistles instead of steam, and Germany experiments with horns.

STIFF PUNCHES FOR THE BOSSES

help things along by wiring to the agent in charge of the Roosevelt train, urging him not to stop here. He said he was afraid that if the colonel should stop everyone would be at the railroad station and that there would be no one at the show, which began fifteen minutes after the time set for Colonel Roosevelt's arrival here. But the colonel stopped here and it looked as though most of the town was on hand. He made a short speech, after which the people of Grand Island went to the show.

In his speeches today Colonel Roosevelt continued to talk about honesty in public and private life and to attack the crooked man and the crooked public servant. He also spoke about New York, referring to the situation in his own state while talking to the people of Council Bluffs.

Earlier in the day he issued a statement in regard to the New York progressives and denouncing bossism and corrupt alliances between business and politics. Supplementing this statement later he declared that he would not permit the "old guard" of New York state to pick the issue there.

He said the great issue in New York was not the fight to procure the enactment of a direct nominations primary law, but the fight against bossism.

War on Corruption.

"It is perfectly plain," said the colonel, "that I stand primarily for political cleanliness and decency and for popular rule. Sometimes I do not agree with all the people. I try my best to represent them as far as I can. I will do anything for them except that which is wrong and that I will not do for any man. You cannot make this government prosper permanently unless you have honesty in public as well as in private life.

"It is our duty to war against corruption in every form—corruption in public life, corruption in business life. And more than that," he continued, "distrust the man who ever appeals to you on the ground that he is against the corrupt of one particular class, but cannot see corruption in some one else. I know financiers and the papers that represent great financiers who are bitter against corruption in small politicians or in labor leaders, but who cannot see it in great business men or concerns."

Corrupt Business and Corrupt Politics.

Speaking of the progressives Colonel Roosevelt said:

"The main issue is that we stand against bossism, big or little, and in favor of genuine popular rule, not only at the elections, but within the party organization, and above all, that our war is ruthless against every species of corruption, big or little, and against the alliance between corrupt business and corrupt politics, as to which it has been found that too often in the past the boss system has offered a peculiarly efficient and objectionable means of communication. We are against the domination of the party and the public by special interests, whether these special interests are political or business interests, or a compound of the two."

Corporations Mustn't Own Public Men.

The need of placing the general needs of the country above all private interests was stressed by Colonel Roosevelt. Iowa is the state in which people are fortunately typical of what the American people should be, he said.

"In fact they place the general interests before the special interests. This, my friends, is the problem that is before the American people today, we must subordinate special interests to the public good.

I want to stand for the corporations when they are right, so that they can have conditions under which they can earn dividends, but corporations are not entitled to votes and are not entitled to the ownership of any public man."

Two staunch progressives had long talks with the colonel today. Senator Cummins got on the train at Ames, Iowa, and stayed there until he reached Omaha. At that point James R. Garfield, of Cleveland, formerly secretary of the interior, joined the party.

Congressman Walter I. Smith, a staunch supporter of Speaker Cannon, also talked with Colonel Roosevelt today. In introducing him to the people of Council Bluffs, Mr. Smith referred to Mr. Roosevelt as "the greatest American."

Roosevelt Train Is Growing.

When Colonel Roosevelt left New York, all of the members of the party traveled in two cars, which were attached to regular trains. The number of cars has grown until now there are six of them, made up in a special train.

At Chicago yesterday one car was attached, carrying a party of men who are going along merely to see what happens. George Ade is one of them. Three more cars were added today and the railroad officers gave up all hope of hauling them on the regular trains.

The mayor of Galesburg, Ill., telegraphed to Colonel Roosevelt today a request that he try to settle the strike in the bituminous coal fields. The colonel remarked that it was the fourth strike which he had been asked to settle since his return from abroad and that he could not consent to act, as he would be obliged to devote several weeks to such a task and he has not the time to spare.

Archie Roosevelt met his father in Omaha this afternoon and rode with him as far as Fremont, Neb. He has been staying on Seth Bullock's ranch in North Dakota.

lieving he had violated no rule, he determined to force the association to take the initiative in the matter.

Hugh Cardoza Talks.

"This suits Mr. Wells exactly," said Hugh Cardoza Friday night. "Mr. Wells entered into the 'open door' movement honestly. He was an originator of the plan to give the public the best, the very best, product of the best brain of the producing manager. He worked to accomplish this, and when the strong point of the fight gave in—Klaw & Erlanger agreeing to play their productions in the 'open door' houses—he was decidedly pleased and thought that the principle of the fight was won. Much to his astonishment, the situation changed, and the Shubert influence asserted itself. The 'open door' people made a new rule. This rule cut out the productions of Klaw & Erlanger, kept these productions from the public. Mr. Wells would not stand for the injustice to the theatergoers and declared his theaters open to all producers. At the recent meeting of the Association of Southern Theater Managers in Chattanooga last week his action was indorsed without a voice against him, despite the fact that the secretary of the National Association of Theater Owners was sent to the meeting to try to discredit him."

Wells Is Expelled.

The telegram from New York follows:

New York, August 26.—(Special.)—At a special meeting of the directors of the National Theater Owners' Association, held today, Jake Wells, the head of the Leath & Wells theatrical interests in the south, was dropped from membership in the association and dispossessed of the franchises he held for the towns he represents.

The action taken by the officers and the directors of the National Theater Owners' Association was brought about through violation of one of the most important sections of the by-laws of the association:

"Every member of this association is required to book or engage theatrical companies or attractions and to make contracts therefor only with the producing managers owning such attractions, or with the accredited representative of such producing manager, providing he shall not represent more than two producing managers. Every producing manager who operates through a representative shall be required to notify the secretary of the association in writing of the appointment of such a representative."

Wells, in the statements published on July 8, as coming direct from him, announced his determination to book the attractions of several producers through Klaw & Erlanger, hence the association's action today.

VICE PRESIDENT SHERMAN TO SPEAK AMONG INDIANS

Vice President James Schoolcraft Sherman is to take the stump for the republican party in the middle west, commencing at Clinton, Ill., August 27. The recent connecting of his name with the alleged attempted bribery of Senator Gore has evidently not deterred the vice president from going into the heart of the Indian country, as will be seen from his itinerary as announced by the republican congressional committee. He will speak at least four times in Oklahoma, and it is thought likely that he will have something to say about graft charges. He will also speak in the same general territory as Colonel Roosevelt, who is responsible for the most of the latest news in connection with Mr. Sherman's selection as temporary chairman of the New York state republican convention.

TWO SOLONS OPPOSED INVITING ROOSEVELT

One of Them Says He Has Heard Enough of the Colonel.

Denver, Col., August 26.—The Colorado legislature, in a joint resolution adopted today, invited Colonel Roosevelt to make a speech before it when he comes to Denver next Monday.

In the senate the chair announced a similar vote for the resolution. "I voted no," corrected Senator McCue, democrat, and when asked why, added, "Because I have heard enough of Roosevelt."

Then Senator Adams, majority leader, arose and, without comment, asked that his vote also be recorded against the resolution.

GREAT VICTORY WON BY THE CLOAKMAKERS

70,000 Strikers Expected to Return to Work Monday.

New York, August 26.—Informal announcement was made today that the strike of cloakmakers in this city has been settled, and the 70,000 strikers are expected to return to work on Monday. Alexander Block, chairman of the strikers' settlement committee, said tonight that the settlement is the greatest victory for union labor in recent years. At the headquarters of the Manufacturers' Protective Association, it was said "the manufacturers will lose nothing."

Mr. Block outlined the terms which he said had been accepted by both sides. The question of hours and wages is to be settled by a neutral committee, whose decision will be accepted by both sides. Shorter hours and higher pay are looked for. A joint agreement has also been reached covering the sanitary conditions of shops.

The open shop, against which the strikers rebelled, is to be maintained, but the manufacturers are to favor the unions in selecting hands, and will urge their employees to join the union. The employers, however, retain the right to choose their own employees.

Found.

I've been away all Sumer long,
And now an inn I've found,
The duplicate of which is not
In all the country 'round;
A bedroom more than large enough,
A bath that's all my own,
A wardrobe, where each gown may hang
Upon its hook alone;

Three scrumptious meals served piping hot
To epicurean me—
Swift service, which does not include
The omnipresent fee;
Iced drinks on tap, at any time—
An always fresh supply,
A dining room which does not en-
Tertain the social fly!

In many other ways beside
This Inn to rare excels;
There are no "Regulations" here—
No foolish rising bells!
I need not fuss and fume upon
Dame Fashion's changing rack
For there is someone here, thanks be,
To hook me up the back!

Its name? I might as well confess
The joke's on me alone—
This caravansary ideal
I found—when I came HOME!

A Good Reason for Insurgency

In an announcement of an important series of articles upon the subject by that preeminent authority, Miss Ida M. Tarbell, and which are to begin shortly in The American Magazine, the editor of that periodical says in its September issue.

"The popular judgment of the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill grows more severe with each passing month. Instead of quieting the tariff question, it has made it more restive. Instead of reassuring business, it has dealt it one of the heaviest blows in years. All of which is logical enough. It is a bogus revision, and every man of sense knows that we will get up permanent settlement of this matter until a genuine, searching, informed revision has been made. He knows that by shirking this duty the Taft administration has lost the country years of time. Here is the real basis of the anti-Taft sentiment—the good reason for insurgency."

Filling the "Jackpot" in Illinois

In his article giving the details of the Lorimer scandal in Illinois—in the September American Magazine—C. S. Raymond describes how the "brains" of the legislature kept the "jackpot" full. One of their methods he tells of as follows:

"The distribution of the jackpot was not always made so openly as was that in the Southwestern hotel at St. Louis described by White. On one occasion it is said that timid manipulators required the contributor of a large sum to pack the money in a grip, take a train for Iowa, drive out to a small town, deposit the grip in a cornfield and return to Chicago without satisfying his curiosity as to who got it. The collector followed in his footsteps. The grip was not long in the corn, but the man who paid did not know the man who took it, and the votes who were handed their share of the money did not know either the contributor or the collector. This sounds unreasonably imaginative, but it has certain apparent advantages."

The People Better Get Busy.

"In the old days the legislative highwaymen held up the fingers of one hand to indicate a $5,000 session and the fingers of both hands to indicate a $10,000 one. They will be holding their hands out and their fingers up again soon enough unless the people of the state continue to hold thumbs down."

Dogs' Names in Tokyo.

It would not have occurred to many persons to think of estimating the progress of foreign language in Japan by investigating the names given to dogs. But that bright idea suggested itself to the Koishikawa police. In pursuance of their duties with regard to the registration of dogs, they recently entered the names of 160 belonging to the inhabitants of that quarter of the city of Tokio.

They found that every one of the 160 had what the Japanese call a "butter-smelling" name; that is to say, a name evidently of foreign origin. There were no less than twelve "Johnnies" among the pack, as well as several "Jocks." The old familiar Japanese names—"Taro," "Jiro" and the like—were conspicuous by their absence.

A Tokio journal regards this as a sign of the times. Like the singing and whistling of occidental tunes which are heard so much in Tokio nowadays, the selection of occidental names for pets in Japanese families is not without significance.

BETTER THAN SPANKING.

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child. The chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.
